

Dairy Industry In Hempstead County Facing A Crisis

County Required to Handle Deficiency Paper to Get Program.

$20,000.00 IS NEEDED

State Notes Are Asked To Be Bought By Financial Institutions.

The dairy industry in Hempstead county is now facing a crisis that demands prompt action on the part of those interested in its further development.

The Hope Chamber of Commerce has been advised by the State Veterinary Department that, if Hempstead county is included in the tick eradication program for 1930, it will be necessary for the banks and other financial interests of the county to purchase $20,000.00 worth of state notes which have been issued under the provisions of a deficiency proclamation by Governor Parnell. The funds thus derived from the sale of these notes will be deposited in the local banks and checked out during the year as the tick eradication work progresses.

This same proposition has been submitted to other counties in which the eradication work has not been completed. Funds for completing tick eradication work in Clark county the past year were provided in this manner. Three or four communities in Polk county are still under quarantine and the banks of this county were asked to purchase $5,000.00 worth of state notes. Newspaper reports state that this amount has already been subscribed and that the tick eradication work will go forward until the entire county has been released from quarantine.

The development program in Hempstead county has about reached its limit until this great menace has been eradicated. Local citizens started the dairy development program two years ago in the firm belief that the 1929 legislature would provide the necessary funds with which to complete the eradication program in South Arkansas. The failure of the legislature to do so is a sad disappointment but we continue to push our development program the past year, believing that some plan would be devised for including Hempstead county in the 1930 program.

Hempstead county is now in line to be included in the 1930 program. The plan has been presented by those in authority. Whether or not we like the plan, it seems to be about the only course left open for us. Whatever is done regarding the matter, must be done at once.

Banker Slays Self, Fails To Find Shortage

FADUCAH, Ky., Jan. 8.—(P)—Remorse because he failed to discover a shortage in the affairs of the First National Company of this city, of which he was president, was blamed yesterday for the death of W. S. Bradshaw, who died at a hospital where he was taken after being found in his office with self-inflicted knife wounds.

In a statement issued by the First National bank, of which Bradshaw also was president, Louis Rubel, first vice president, declared the affairs of the bank are in perfect order, but revealed that he joined Bradshaw and Jesse Weil in making good a shortage in the accounts of the First National Company, when it was discovered that employees of that company had been speculating.

"The nervous condition that led to his death," Rubel declared, "was brought about by the shortage of the First National Company, which is a bond company and is in no way connected with the First National bank. Mr. Bradshaw allowed this incident to prey upon his mind."

Prohi Officers Raid S. Arkansas

Seize 20 Gallons Whiskey,
3000 Bottles Beer
At Camden.

EL DORADO, Jan. 8.—(P)—Three white women and fifteen men including the brother-in-law of the El Dorado chief of police and a prominent druggist of this city were charged with liquor possession today.

Federal agents yesterday, headed by F. M. Gurley, federal prohibition administrator, who last summer raided the Texarkana district in charge of the raids yesterday.

Two white women, Mrs. H. T. Reed and Myrtle Meyers were arrested in El Dorado and Mrs. R. Steinhilber, of Camden, Glen Goodwin, filling station operator and a brother of the El Dorado chief of police was arrested at his station, and charged with possession and selling of liquor.

Twenty gallons of whiskey and three thousand bottles of beer were reported from Camden.

Chicago Cops Kill Three in Gang War

Adopting new methods in their war on gangsters, Chicago police lay in ambush in the offices of the Tire Workers' and Vulcanizers' Union and dealt summary justice to three racketeers who attempted to "muscle in" and gain control of the organization, killing all three in the furious gun battle that resulted. The racketeers called with sawed off shotguns and other weapons and demanded $10,000, whereupon five detectives stepped from their hiding places and began firing. These pictures show the office where the shooting took place and the three slain gangsters on the floor after the smoke cleared away. They were William (Hump) Quan, ex-convict; John Ryan, booze gangster, and William Wilson, notorious racketeer. One detective was wounded in the hand.

Teacher, Student To Quit School

Pair Accused of Tampering With Alcohol Used
In Laboratory.

JACKSON, Miss., Jan. 8.—A teacher and a student were asked to quit Millsaps College, after a probe into disappearance of the alcohol supply from the laboratory of the college.

The teacher is Jimmy Collins, of Summit, Miss., a student assistant, and the student is Uriah Banks, of Philadelphia, Miss.

Banks said he would quit, but Collins refused. He explained he would not accept the request, saying to withdraw would be an admission of the guilt.

Although college officers have made no statement as to the number involved in the irregularities of the liquor supply, it was rumored several others would appear before the committee.

Mrs. Rothwell Is Buried Yesterday

Funeral Services Were Held In Spring Hill
Vicinity.

Mrs. William Rothwell's body arrived here yesterday from Shreveport, La., and was laid to rest in the cemetery at Spring Hill yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Services were conducted by the Rev. Beardon, of Spring Hill.

She is survived by six children, Mrs. Casing, of Hope; Mrs. Payne, Shreveport; Mrs. Dutch, Huckabee, Rice, Rothwell, Carl Rothwell and Ruby Rothwell, all of Shreveport, La., and three brothers and three sisters.

Mrs. Rothwell had lived in Hope for many years and was well known here.

The Baptist Ladies Auxiliary of Patmos met Jan. 7, at the church nine members were present.

Song by audience—"We Will Work Until Jesus Comes."

Loot and Safe Are Taken In Robbery

Block and Tackle Used In Removing Bank's
Money Vault.

MONTGOMERY, Texas, Jan. 8.—(P)—Between $12,000 and $15,000 in cash was taken by burglars who dug into the vault of the First State Bank here Tuesday, rigged a block and tackle to load the safe into an automobile and drove away.

The robbers drove a hook into the wall of the bank on which to hang their block and tackle. T. L. Wilcox, cashier, discovered the robbery Tuesday morning.

"They got between $12,000 and $15,000 in cash and securities, the value of which is not known," said Wilcox.

The bandits, digging their way into the vault, tore away bricks to make an opening large enough for a man to enter.

Once inside they evidently jacked up the safe said Wilcox, and set up their block and tackle near the vault. Then they heaved on the ropes, he said, until they swung the safe clear. The safe then was dropped into the car, which was backed up close to the entrance.

Tracks of the car found were the only clues.

"The job evidently was pulled by professionals," said Wilcox. "They evidently worked only to swing the safe from the vault to their car."

Sheriff Ben Hicks of Montgomery county headed the investigation here. He asked the sheriff of Harris county and Houston police to be on the lookout for three men believed to have headed toward Houston.

Former Pine Bluff Girl Appearing In Pictures

PINE BLUFF, Jan. 8.—Miss Virginia Crawford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Will Crawford, former Pine Bluff residents who have been making their home in Hollywood, Calif., for the past two years, has been given a part in several pictures recently. Miss Crawford appears in "The Rampant Age" and "Shirt Tied". She attended the high school in this city, and is a talented dancer.

Miss Crawford has been doing extra in pictures for some time, but the last two pictures have featured her in excellent talking parts.

It would be possible for the farm board to furnish speakers and educational matter and possibly lend money, toward a campaign to organize the farmers of Texas by district. Williams said replying to a question from C. S. E. Holland of Houston, representing the Texas Bankers Association who expressed belief that the only way to get relief would be to undertake the tasks of educating the farmers to the real meaning of the farm board act. He said he believed this would require several years.

Weather Bureau Predicts Flood Stage On Ouachita

River to Reach 22 Feet At Arkadelphia and 40
Feet At Camden.

LOWLANDS COVERED

Stuttgart Rice Experiment Station In Water
Today.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Jan. 8.—(P)—The United States weather bureau here today issued flood warnings and predicted a rise in the upper Ouachita river of ten feet above flood stage at Arkadelphia and Camden by January 13.

Due to heavy rainfall on the upper streams, the Ouachita will rise rapidly and reach 22 feet or higher at Arkadelphia and 40 feet at Camden.

LITTLE ROCK, Jan. 8.—(P)—High flood stages of the Ouachita river, predicted by the New Orleans weather bureau, Arkadelphia and Camden lowlands will be covered with water. Neither city is endangered by water unless further rainfall is had.

The Rice Experiment Station, five miles southeast of Stuttgart is in water from one to two inches today. A down pour of 5.83 inches or as much as can be pumped during three months in the rice season.

New Year's Babies To Receive Awards

Star Makes Error In Publishing Births of Babies
This Year.

Two errors were made in awarding the gifts to the first babies of the New Year in yesterday's paper; Dr. W. M. Garner advises that he reported the birth of a baby girl, Miss Lucile Marie, to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Robinson on January 3, and that this report "did not reach the news columns of the Hope Star." The baby girl was born on January 3, at 3:45 a. m. Her father is employed at the Hope Lumber Company. Therefore this baby is entitled to the awards to the first baby girl born in the city limits of Hope in 1930. These consist of a $100 cash account from the Arkansas Bank & Trust Co., and a six months subscription to the Hope Star. This is the second year an employee of the Hope Lumber Co. wins awards for the first of the New Year babies.

The first baby born in Hempstead county outside of the city limits was the baby girl of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Wilson, of Battifield, according to the issue of Jan. 1st, and the Hope Star, and according to Dr. Weaver, Dorothy June was born at 9:30 on January 1. It is she who is entitled to the baby shoes from Patterson's Department Store, the baby package from Ward's Drug Store, a photograph from Shipley's, two cans of Eagle milk from Stephenson's, a month's pass to the New Grand, a present from the Hope Lumber Co., a high chair from the Hope Furniture Co., a pair of baby shoes from Geo. W. Robinson & Co., a bank account of $100 from the Arkansas Bank & Trust Co., and a six months subscription to the Hope Star.

The little son of Mr. and Mrs. John Yeocum, of Spring Hill, a first baby boy born in the county, but outside the city limits wins a bank account of $100 and a six months subscription to the Hope Star.

These errors were due, no doubt to a change of baby editors before the awards had been made. A thousand apologies.

Farmers Organize To Share Relief

Growers Must Get Selves
Together In Order to Help Themselves.

AUSTIN, Tex., Jan. 8.—(P)—Texas cotton farmers must organize themselves into a central agency before they can share in the relief offered by Congress through the Federal Farm Board.

This was the message brought by Alexander Legge, chairman, and Carl Williams, cotton member, of the board, in conference yesterday with Governor Dan Moody, heads of certain Texas colleges and representatives of farmers and bankers' associations.

It would be possible for the farm board to furnish speakers and educational matter and possibly lend money, toward a campaign to organize the farmers of Texas by district. Williams said replying to a question from C. S. E. Holland of Houston, representing the Texas Bankers Association who expressed belief that the only way to get relief would be to undertake the tasks of educating the farmers to the real meaning of the farm board act. He said he believed this would require several years.

Giant Tree of Valley Located Near Hickman

HICKMAN, Ky., Jan. 8.—What is believed to be the largest tree in the Mississippi valley, has just been rediscovered in the heart of the Three States timber tract, directly across the river from Hickman. The tree is a hickory oak, and is 29 feet six inches in circumference and about 25 feet high. The first limb is 50 feet from the ground. It can only be reached by walking 15 miles through swamps, bayous and virgin forest.

South Warned To Cut Cotton Area

Farm Board Won't Aid
Farmers In Case of Over Production.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—In a terse warning to cotton farmers to reduce their acreage this spring if they expect the government to help market the 1930 crop, the Federal Farm Board took its first decisive step yesterday to force a minimum agricultural surplus.

"C. C. Teague, a member of the board, said the warning applied to wheat as well as cotton, and to any other commodity in which producers made a deliberate attempt to expand their acreage in the face of overproduction."

"Some cotton farmers," the board said, "think that because the Federal Farm Board has been lending to co-operators at an average of 16 cents a pound on middling seven-eighths-inch staples of the 1929 crop, the board means to see to it that the price will be at least that much for the crop of 1930."

"This is not so. The Federal Farm Board cannot protect farmers when they deliberately overplant. What the board will do to help in marketing next year's crop will depend upon what farmers do at planting time."

No Definite Threat
Teague would not say whether the board meant to imply that it would discontinue loans or refuse to assist in marketing if cotton farmers ignored the warning and a serious surplus resulted.

He turned the question rather to the problem of creating a profitable price on an overcrowded market.

"The advances we have made in cotton and wheat this year," he said, "represent what we feel to be a safe margin guaranteed by present prices, current stock, supply and demand. We do not know that we could offer as much, less or more, next year. Advances undoubtedly will vary from time to time, depending on the economic trend. Sudden expansion in any commodity producing a surplus might make it impossible to obtain a profitable price."

In no event, Teague said, would the Farm Board guarantee a price level for a crop in advance of planting.

The board based its warning on its statement that last year's cotton acreage was too large. It was the largest planted acreage of any year in history excepting 1925 and 1926. Nothing but crop failure in Texas in 1929, the board said, prevented a total yield of 16,000,000 bales—more American cotton than the world would take at a fair price.

Large Cotton Crops The board said, "sell for less than small ones. Ten million bales in 1929 sold for $1,600,000,000. Eighteen million bales in 1926 sold for less than $1,000,000,000; that is, farmers picked and gained 8,000,000 bales of cotton in 1926, gave them to the world free of charge, and, in effect, paid $600,000,000 for the privilege."

"If Southern farmers should raise their own food and feed, and in addition raise so far as the climate and soil will let them, the food that Southern city people eat, there would be small danger of any cotton surplus or of an unprofitable crop."

The board recommended that the Southern farmers plant no cotton next spring until they first have provided acres enough for a reasonable supply of food and feed, and that no land be planted to cotton which had not produced at least one-third of a bale per acre a title average for the last five years.

While the suggestions were offered on wheat or other surplus-producing commodities aided by the board, Teague said the board would insist that the acreage be held to previous averages at least.

Nashville Needs More Dwellings

Climax of Year's Improvement Was Installation of Natural Gas.

NASHVILLE, Jan. 8.—The year just closed saw forward strides in Nashville, perhaps the greatest ever made in one year. During the first of the year Nashville's streets were paved. In addition to the paving of the streets several new public buildings were erected, also several fine new residences. The city still has a housing problem to face there not being enough residences in the city to accommodate those who wish to live here.

The climax of the year's improvement was the installation of natural gas in Nashville by the Arkansas Natural Gas Corporation. During the new year, 1930, the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company will install a flashlight system and the Southwest Gas and Electric Company will place a new sub-station here.

Eielson Search Is Renewed As Snow Subsides

Two Dog Teams Missing
In Foothills of Far
North Wastes.

TWO PILOTS READY

Crosson and Gilliam Will Begin Search as Visibility Becomes Good

MOTORSHIP NANUK, North Cape, Siberia. Judo via Nome, Alaska.—Jan. 8.—The far north's worst snow storm of the winter, which for days has blurred the Siberian landscape in a solid white haze, moderated for continuance of the search for the missing aviators, Carl Ben Eielson and Earl Borland.

Eielson and Borland, who flew out from Alaska in November to bring supplies to the ice bound Nanuk, disappeared somewhere in the snow bogged wastelands south of here.

Only recently was the search for them organized from the Nanuk and the Russian trader Stravopol. Soon after the planes equipped for the search arrived, the blizzard swirled down and raged for days, piling drifts upon drifts and making it impossible for any outside activity.

So tremendous were the ice floes that food for dog teams was extremely difficult to obtain.

All searchers have remained at the ship, breaking the monotony as best they can with card games and the like.

Moderation of the storm brought hopeful predictions that clear weather was imminent. As soon as visibility becomes good Pilots Joe Crosson and Harold Gilliam were prepared to leave the Nanuk on the search, which, unless they are lucky, will take them over thousands of square miles of barren tundra.

Two dog teams which saw to the Nanuk just before the blizzard reached its height, meanwhile were missing in the snow banked foothills to the south. The Stravopol, contacted by radio, promised to send out teams in an effort to locate the Nanuk party as soon as the weather clears.

It was feared that when and if searchers come upon the plane of Eielson and Borland, they will find only their frozen bodies. Even were they able to land safely, a difficult task as best on the Siberian steppes, they had food enough only to last them for one month. The month was up early in December.

Pine Bluff Stores Robbed Last Night

Officers Believe Thieves
To Be Band Working
This Territory.

PINE BLUFF, Jan. 8.—(P)—A grocery store owned by Paschal Bos, was entered here last night and $355 in cash was taken. The entrance was gained by breaking a lock on a rear door.

A Piggy Wiggly store store was entered, but burglars were unable to open the safe. Instead they took the safe which contained about $200 and some valuable records with them. Tools were found this morning on the floor where the thieves had worked during the night. This being the second time in two weeks that safes were removed from Pine Bluff stores.

Police have no clue to the identity of the burglars but believe it to be a band which is responsible for all of them.

Townsend Named For Postmaster

His Appointment May Be Confirmed Without Delay.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—President Hoover yesterday sent the nomination of Albert E. Townsend to the senate for confirmation. It is probable that his appointment will be confirmed without delay.

Mr. Townsend, at present acting postmaster, has been with the Little Rock postoffice for many years. He is a brother of Wallace Townsend, Republican national committeeman. The new postmaster will succeed James A. Ginoch, who died recently.

Sheriff Landers Leaves To Return Willie Walker

LITTLE ROCK, Jan. 8.—(P)—Sheriff A. H. Landers of Poinsett county, plans to leave today for Phoenix, Ariz., to return Willie Walker here to face murder charges in the connection of the slaying of Miss Lena Waugh, whose body was found three weeks ago in a clump of bushes near Marked Tree, Ark.

The investigation continued today by Little Rock and Poinsett county officers.

Runs for Senate

The Democrats of North Carolina are to stage the Smith-Hoover fight all over again as Josiah W. Bailey, above, of Raleigh, has announced as a candidate against Senator F. M. Simmons, who is seeking reelection for a sixth term. Bailey stumped the state for Al Smith last year, whereas Senator Simmons opposed the New Yorker. Simmons had been unopposed for the Democratic nomination since 1912.

Are Investigating Boxcar Robberies

Bowie County Grand Jury
Meets To Start
Probe.

TEXARKANA, Tex., Jan. 8.—(P)—The Bowie county (Tex.) Grand Jury, convening at Boston yesterday, started an investigation into a series of boxcar robberies which culminated in the killing of two negroes Sunday night.

Among railroad officials to appear before the Grand Jury was W. N. Weaver, Kansas City Southern railroad special officer, who shot and killed Clarence Hart and Odie Eason negroes, as they sought to escape after their arrest.

The Grand Jury will question Mr. Stewart, another of the quartet caught by Weaver, in an effort to determine if the negroes were acting for a theft ring, which railroad officials believe to be led by white men.

Special railroad agents told the Grand Jury that 19 boxcars had been entered here within the last three months, and that merchandise of wide variety had been taken from 14 cars. Officers still were searching tonight for the fourth negro, wounded by Weaver.

Two other negroes were being sought in connection with the $15,000 cotton mill fire about the time of the attempted robbery. A Mexican witness of the fire is said to have seen the four negroes leave the scene of the fire shortly before their capture in the railroad yards.

L. M. Byers Dies Bingen Yesterday

Was Pastor of Baptist Church at That Place.

L. M. Byers died at his home at Rev. L. M. Byers died at his home at Binger Tuesday. His death was sudden being due to heart failure. He was pastor of the Baptist church at that place where he has resided for a number of years. He was a well known Baptist divine throughout Southwest Arkansas where he has held many pastorates.

He is survived by a widow and several children; two brothers, Judge R. L. Byers, of Abilene, Texas; Ira Byers, Hot Springs and two sisters, Mrs. Henry Roberts, Shover Springs and Mrs. Lena Gentry of Oklahoma. Burial will be at Shover Springs, about six miles from Hope, today.

Meeting of Agents Is Continued Today

Many Assemble Here
From Portions of Southwest Ark.

After the first and second day's meeting of the annual conference of county and home demonstration agents of southwest Arkansas a joint meeting was held this morning and the following program was rendered: Music Appreciation, Miss Buchanan.

How to Use the Specialists, by Dean Dan T. Gray.

Analyzing the Needs of the County, by T. Roy Reid.

Measuring Results of Extension Work, by J. A. Evans.

Conducting Campaigns, led by Paul Caruth, agricultural Committee, led by Miss Tommie Etone, R. N. Bond and J. L. Wright.

Round table discussion.

Three Are Dead In Shooting At Atlanta Today

Shoots Man and Wife and Then Fires Shot Into His Head.

JEALOUSY IS CAUSE

Weapon Appeared To Be A Miniature Machine
Gun.

ATLANTA, Ga., Jan. 8.—(P)—John E. Barnett, of Chattanooga, Tenn., today shot George Mason, and fatally wounded Mrs. Mason, and then committed suicide.

The shooting took place on Hill street. A small boy told police that he saw two automobiles racing on the street and that Barnett leaped out of the front car and pulled a special made automatic pistol, which appeared to be similar to a miniature machine gun and emptied it into the rear car. Mr. Mason was struck in the head and died instantly. Mrs. Mason received shots in the body and died shortly after. Barnett then pulled a revolver which he fired into his head, dying shortly afterwards.

Mrs. Mason was formally the wife of Barnett, and when police answered the call they found a note in his car addressed to police, saying that "she is still my wife, and belongs to me."

Maurice Chevalier To Be Heard Over Radio Tonight

The first radio program ever broadcast by Coty, Inc. Paris and New York performers, is scheduled for tonight, Phillip G. Back, promotion manager of the New Back Department Store of Little Rock, which handles Coty toilet preparations in Little Rock, announced yesterday.

Maurice Chevalier, described as "the theatrical idol of France," will make his initial appearance before the microphone in a series of songs. He will be accompanied by David Mendez's Symphony orchestra, personally conducted by Mr. Mendez.

The program will be broadcast from the studios of radio station WABC in New York, and 30 associated stations in a national hook-up including station KLT at Little Rock, which will broadcast the entire program, starting at 7:30 p. m. and ending at 8.

Stuttgart Highway Under Water Today

Heavy Rain Causes Motor
Bus Traffic To Be Halted.

LITTLE ROCK, Jan. 8.—(P)—Heavy rain which fell in Arkansas yesterday and last night turned to sleet, according to the weather bureau forecast today.

Rain of a minimum of 26 inches to 22 inches fell at Helena. De Walle Bluff reported 4.83 inches, Pine Bluff 3.55 inches, Clarendon 3.6 inches, Newport 2.93 inches, Little Rock 2.35 inches, Stuttgart 3.35 inches. The downpour being so great that almost all highways leading to that city were under water today, causing motor bus traffic to be halted.

The rain fall which fell generally all over the state yesterday has not effected the rivers, but a rise is predicted on all streams soon.

Walker Being Held At Phoenix, Ariz.

Officers Believe He Will Furnish Key To Slaying.

LITTLE ROCK, Jan. 8.—(P)—Officers investigating the mysterious slaying and the finding of the body of Miss Lena Waugh, 35, divorcee, today believe the capture of Willie Walker at Phoenix, Ariz., furnishes a key to the unraveling of the brutal murder of a woman whose body is held at Marked Tree.

Walker, who's home is at Wynne, Ark., and who was arrested at Phoenix with the possession of the dead woman's automobile today is being held by officials of that city. He was arrested there on December 30 when he attempted to sell at virtually a low price the car belonging to Miss Waugh to a used car dealer of that city.

He was extradited, and Arkansas officers are on their way to Phoenix to return their prisoner.

Rudy Vallee Denies Show Girl's Charges

NEW YORK, Jan. 8.—(P)—Hubert Prior Vallee—the Rudy Vallee of the radio and the crooning voice—has denied all but one allegation charged in the $200,000 breach of promise suit filed by Agnes O'Loughlin, Broadway show girl.

And as to that allegation, Rudy, through his attorneys, said: "Defendant denies each and every allegation contained in paragraph numbered four except as much as alleges that he refused to marry plaintiff and has stated to plaintiff that he will not marry her."

Hope Star

Entered as second-class matter at the postoffice at Hope, Arkansas, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

BY STAR PUBLISHING COMPANY
217 South Main Street
Hope, Arkansas

C. E. PALMER, President
ALEX. H. WASHBURN, Editor and Publisher

The newspaper is an institution developed by modern civilization to present the news of the day, to foster commerce and industry, thus widely disseminating advertisements, and to furnish that check upon government which no constitution has ever been able to provide.—Col. McCormick.

Member of The Associated Press. The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for republication of all news dispatches credited to it or otherwise credited in this paper and also the local news published herein. All rights of reproduction of special dispatches herein are also reserved.

Subscription Rates

(Always Payable in Advance)
By city carrier, per month $3.50; six months $20.00; one year $35.00. By mail, in Hempstead, Nevada, Howard, Miller and Lafayette counties, $3.00 per year; elsewhere $5.00.

The Star's Platform

CITY

Apply the revenues of the municipal power plant to develop the industrial and social resources of Hope.
More city pavement in 1930, and improved sanitary conditions in the alleys and business back-yards.
Support the Chamber of Commerce.

COUNTY

A county highway program providing for the construction of a minimum amount of all-weather road each year, to gradually reduce the dirt road mileage.
Political and economic support for every scientific agricultural program which offers practical benefits to Hempstead county's greatest industry.

Encourage farmer organizations, believing that co-operative effort is as practical in the country as it is in town.

STATE

Continued progress on the state highway program.
Fearless tax reform, and a more efficient government through the budget system of expenditures.
Free Arkansas from the cattle tick.

When Judges Make Mistakes

THERE is no title in modern America that carries with it more of a connotation of dignity, learning and uprightness than the title "judge." When a man is given the right to put that title in front of his name we automatically accept him as a being wiser and more profound than the generality of mankind.

But it should be remembered that judges, having been ordinary mortals before their elevation to the bench, often retain traces of the foibles and idiosyncrasies to which ordinary mortals are subject. John Smith, the political hack, may be a rather ignorant, shady character; making him Judge Smith will not necessarily improve him much.

To recent happenings on the New York bench emphasize this fact.

Judge Sabatino sat in judgment on a 17-year-old Brooklyn lad who had been arrested for soliciting alms for the southern textile strikers. The lad admitted that he was a Communist; whereupon the judge made this amazing remark:

"What you need is for me to have you in a two-by-four room. What I wouldn't do to you! I would blacken your eyes and give you some real American spirit!"

That's exhibit Number One. Number Two deals with Judge Vitale, to whom friends tendered a testimonial dinner. Seven men whose pictures appear in the police rogues' gallery were among the guests. At the height of the festivities a group of masked robbers entered and relieved the guests of some $5000 in cash and jewelry. A city detective who was present was robbed of his gun.

A few hours later, according to this detective, Judge Vitale called him to his office and gave him back his gun!

Those two incidents seem to indicate that there are judges and judges.

It's a good thing for us to bear in mind. Too often we assume that the mere fact that a man is on the bench proves that he is wiser and more upright than most men. The actions of these two shining lights of the New York bench disproves that assumption.

Confident

TESTIMONY to the basic soundness of American business and industrial conditions continues to mount up. The latest comes from Julius H. Barnes, chairman of the board of the United States Chamber of Commerce.

Writing for the current Review of Reviews, Mr. Barnes says that the recent stock market collapse has actually increased the business man's confidence.

"It has become reasonably apparent that business has emerged from the confusion riding on an even keel," he says. "It has become apparent, too, that those who direct its course have not only been wisely cautious in steering clear of the shoal waters that invite economic disaster but are better prepared than ever to pool their efforts in charting a safe course for the future."

Trouble Ahead

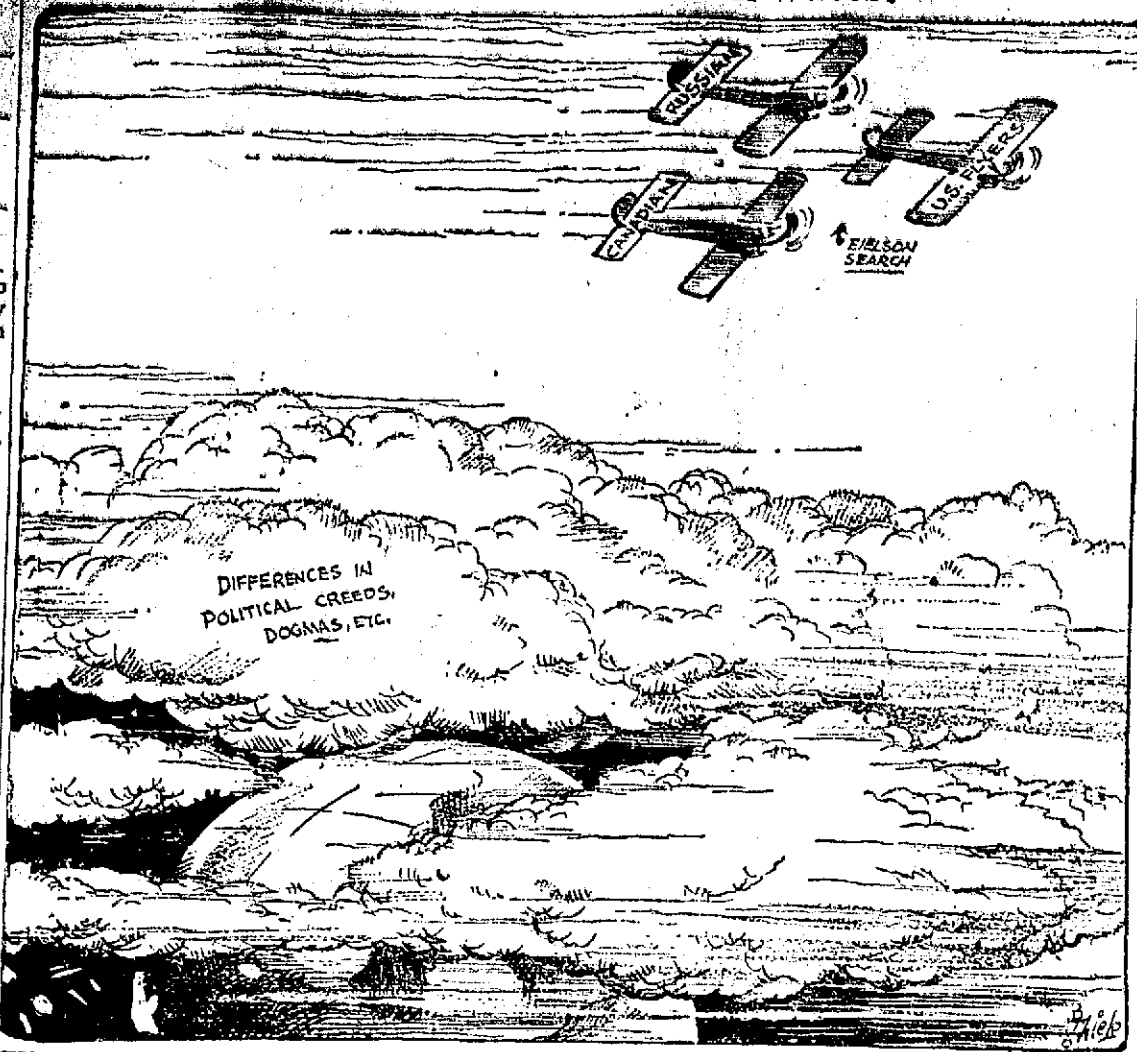

THE biggest news stories of the year that is just beginning may well come from India.

The long-smoldering desire for independence seems to have burst into open flame; and if it leads to bloodshed—as is quite possible—the British will find themselves facing their biggest problem since the World War.

What the upshot of the thing will be it is not possible for any man to say. It seems fairly safe, however, to predict that the British will eventually have their way. India has 300,000,000 inhabitants, but they are not a war-like people. If they were, the British could never have subjugated them in the first place.

Undoubtedly, Britain will eventually grant India full dominion status. The present independence agitation, however, may simply delay that day. It is to be doubted if the Indians will gain much by it.

Blood Is Thicker Than Water!

Daily WASHINGTON LETTER

By RODNEY DUTCHER

WASHINGTON—The power war, featuring the big electricity companies constantly on the offensive as they expand and entrench their industry and constantly on the defensive against a determined band of sharpshooters in Congress and outside, goes on regardless of tariff bills, tax cuts and naval conferences.

Some heavy firing is anticipated during the Senate Interstate Commerce Committee's investigation of power and communications under the chairmanship of Senator Couzens of Michigan. In its early stages this investigation has concerned itself with radio and Owen D. Young and General Harbord of the Radio Corporation have appeared to urge a monopoly in our international communications. Eventually the committee will turn its attention to power and it has the opportunity to take up all phases of that issue. It has the desire for a sweeping investigation. Whether it is equipped by knowledge and personnel for any effective work probable will be indicated by the way it deals with the "Radio Trust."

Meanwhile, the National Popular Government League, the most active and intelligent of the sharpshooters groups opposed to the "Power Trust" is out with a summary of the situation with regard to "the more pressing phases of the power war."

Concerning Muscle Shoals it warns that the "Trust" no longer has opposition from any competing company seeking Muscle Shoals, whereas heretofore it has had to fight such interests as Henry Ford and the American Cyanamid Co. The power lobbyists and propagandists are now working for the Cyanamid bill and charges are cited that a secret deal has been made on Muscle Shoals, involving the Alabama Power Company and Cyanamid.

To meet the claim of companies that they want a Muscle Shoals lease solely to give the farmers cheap fertilizer, Senator Black of Alabama has introduced amendments to the Norris bill which would lease the Shoals nitrate plants to some private company for a dollar a year for fertilizer manufacture at a profit limited to eight per cent and provides that the federal operating corporation shall sell any amount of power for that purpose to the company at low rates.

The league predicts that the Federal Trade Commission, about to investigate power company finances, will disclose "startling financial juggling and blue sky operations." It refers to President Hoover's declaration against public ownership in his message to Congress and to his "cautious and vague" references to the desirability of some kind of federal control.

Secretary of the Interior Wilbur, it is pointed out, has tentatively allocated 25 per cent of the Boulder Dam power to the Southern California Edison Company, in spite of the demand for it from states and municipalities of California which have a preferential right under the Federal Power act. The league demands observance of the law.

The Flathead power site in Montana, with a capacity of 200,000 primary horsepower, is another "pressing phase" of the power war. The Rocky Mountain Power Company, subsidiary of Montana Power Company and Electric Bond & Share is fighting for the Flathead against Walter H. Wheeler, a Minneapolis capitalist.

the afternoon last Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Ross of this place. Roy Rogers and family spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Dewey McComie near Coresh.

Mrs. Putnam spent the past week with her daughter, Mrs. Raymond Ross of this place.

Mr. Bidde and family from near Rosston spent the night with his daughter, Mrs. Ivinton Taylor last Friday night.

Next Saturday and Sunday the regular preaching day at the place. Come and bring some one with you. The singing at Mr. Early McWilliams' last Sunday night, was enjoyed by the young folks.

Mr. Bob Hucklebee moved last Friday near Patmos, Ark. We regret for a good man to move out of our community and always glad for a good man to move in our community.

Miss Velma Lee Taylor spent the day last Sunday with Ruby Bennett.

A hen in Wellington, Kan., went for a ride on the bumper of her owner's automobile. Usually the hens are in the back seat.

Mr. Schwab says business opportunities are unlimited. And, looking back upon what Mr. Shearer did with a sheering, we almost believe him.

One thing about those long dresses the ladies now have to button them to keep tails of their gowns from getting caught.

Expect To Close Doors of Right Place Store

E. W. Shuey arrived in Hope recently to close out the "Right Place" store which is located in Elm street. This firm purchased the stock of Claude Stuart last May, but has decided to withdraw from Hope, according to Mr. Shuey, who was sent here by C. C. Cox, president of the Little Rock firm, to sell the stock and fixtures, and to attempt to sell the lease on the building. "We expect to empty the store by February 1," says Mr. Shuey, who is advertising and salesmanager for the chain of stores.

Scientist Seeks Cure For Back Seat Driver

DR. DONALD A. LAIRD

THE psychological laboratories of Colgate University, directed by Dr. Donald A. Laird, have turned the spotlight of science on back seat drivers, as part of an investigation to measure the lack of coordination between muscular and nerve control.

According to Dr. Laird much of the nervousness displayed by back seat drivers can be traced to physical make-up and failure to provide proper nourishment necessary for accurate muscular and nervous reaction. Women who diet are good examples of this.

Foods containing sugar will be used in the tests, because, Dr. Laird said, sugar is among the most rapidly utilized of all muscle foods and therefore is particularly useful in measuring the effect of nourishment.

News of Other Days

From the Files of the Star

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Hon. J. H. McCollum left Monday for Little Rock where, with Hon. R. E. Simpson he will represent the grand old county of Hempstead in the Lower House of the General Assembly to meet Monday next.

Edwin Ward arrived home Monday evening from Tyler, Texas. He says it didn't take a long time to change his mind out there.

The Hotel Barlow has received its new office fixtures, and now presents an appearance of which any city the size of Hope might be justly proud.

The Board of Stewards of the Methodist church met on Monday night last and reorganized for the coming year. They elected Dr. J. H. Wewer as chairman, and J. H. Arnold as Secretary.

C. A. Edwards, and J. F. Shlimer of Mineral Springs were guests at the Hotel Barlow Thursday.

Miss Eva Barlow returned yesterday to Little Rock where she was attending school, after spending the holidays at home.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Holt visited at Jukejones this week.

TEN YEARS AGO

Mr. J. C. Broyles, who, with his family has been visiting his relatives here since before the holidays, returned yesterday to New York. Mrs. Broyles and little son, Joe, will remain for a longer visit with her mother.

Miss Maude Lipscomb has returned to Oklahoma City where she is a student in the Commercial College there. En route she will visit in Gordon, and Little Rock.

Mrs. A. D. Brown entertained with a most enjoyable affair at her pretty bungalow in Frisco Addition Saturday afternoon honoring Mrs. Geo. R. Breedlove, who has been spending the holidays at the home of her daughter Mrs. Roy Anderson. The rooms were further beautified with ferns, and bowls of narcissus. Tables were arranged for bridge. Those playing were: Mrs. Geo. Breedlove, Mrs. Roy Anderson, Mrs. W. G. Allison, Mrs. H. L. Snyder, Mrs. Kline Snyder, Mrs. Harry Grigsby, Mrs. Wright Tharp, Mrs. Atlas Key, Mrs. R. T. White, Mrs. J. M. Houston, Mrs. J. F. Corin, Mrs. Chas. Lowthrop, Mrs. Steve Carigan, Jr., Mrs. Rufus Diddy, Mrs. J.

B. Stone, Mrs. J. M. McFarlane, of Houston, Texas, Mrs. J. T. Hicks, Mrs. Kim Corrigan, Opal Stagg, Ruth Basil Newton, Mrs. J. A. Henry, Mrs. Tully Henry, Mrs. E. S. Richards, Mrs. Lucy Boyd, and Louise K. ple. At the games a dainty plate luncheon was served.

Today's Crossword Puzzle

ACROSS

1. Vingling
2. Uterine name
3. Store at an easy exit
4. Stratagem
5. Implements for washing
6. Frequently
7. Body of land
8. Small shoot of twig
9. Native of a
10. S. territory
11. Gallin
12. Roman bronze coin
13. Monkey
14. American lake
15. Phil
16. Walking in water
17. Free card of admission
18. Enact
19. New comb
20. Diminishing toward a point
21. Sunshade
22. Sunshade
23. Embellish
24. Leave out
25. Nick

DOWN

1. Gifts to charity
2. Circle
3. Celestial body
4. Probabilities
5. Exit of work
6. Anglo-Saxon slave
7. Depend
8. Short letter
9. Large body of water
10. Circular
11. Celestial body
12. Probabilities
13. Exit of work
14. Anglo-Saxon slave
15. Depend
16. Short letter
17. Large body of water
18. Circular
19. Celestial body
20. Probabilities
21. Exit of work
22. Anglo-Saxon slave
23. Depend
24. Short letter
25. Large body of water
26. Circular
27. Celestial body
28. Probabilities
29. Exit of work
30. Anglo-Saxon slave
31. Depend
32. Short letter
33. Large body of water
34. Circular
35. Celestial body
36. Probabilities
37. Exit of work
38. Anglo-Saxon slave
39. Depend
40. Short letter
41. Large body of water
42. Circular
43. Celestial body
44. Probabilities
45. Exit of work
46. Anglo-Saxon slave
47. Depend
48. Short letter
49. Large body of water
50. Circular
51. Celestial body
52. Probabilities
53. Exit of work
54. Anglo-Saxon slave
55. Depend
56. Short letter
57. Large body of water
58. Circular
59. Celestial body
60. Probabilities
61. Exit of work
62. Anglo-Saxon slave
63. Depend
64. Short letter
65. Large body of water
66. Circular
67. Celestial body
68. Probabilities
69. Exit of work
70. Anglo-Saxon slave
71. Depend
72. Short letter
73. Large body of water
74. Circular
75. Celestial body
76. Probabilities
77. Exit of work
78. Anglo-Saxon slave
79. Depend
80. Short letter
81. Large body of water
82. Circular
83. Celestial body
84. Probabilities
85. Exit of work
86. Anglo-Saxon slave
87. Depend
88. Short letter
89. Large body of water
90. Circular
91. Celestial body
92. Probabilities
93. Exit of work
94. Anglo-Saxon slave
95. Depend
96. Short letter
97. Large body of water
98. Circular
99. Celestial body
100. Probabilities
101. Exit of work
102. Anglo-Saxon slave
103. Depend
104. Short letter
105. Large body of water
106. Circular
107. Celestial body
108. Probabilities
109. Exit of work
110. Anglo-Saxon slave
111. Depend
112. Short letter
113. Large body of water
114. Circular
115. Celestial body
116. Probabilities
117. Exit of work
118. Anglo-Saxon slave
119. Depend
120. Short letter
121. Large body of water
122. Circular
123. Celestial body
124. Probabilities
125. Exit of work
126. Anglo-Saxon slave
127. Depend
128. Short letter
129. Large body of water
130. Circular
131. Celestial body
132. Probabilities
133. Exit of work
134. Anglo-Saxon slave
135. Depend
136. Short letter
137. Large body of water
138. Circular
139. Celestial body
140. Probabilities
141. Exit of work
142. Anglo-Saxon slave
143. Depend
144. Short letter
145. Large body of water
146. Circular
147. Celestial body
148. Probabilities
149. Exit of work
150. Anglo-Saxon slave
151. Depend
152. Short letter
153. Large body of water
154. Circular
155. Celestial body
156. Probabilities
157. Exit of work
158. Anglo-Saxon slave
159. Depend
160. Short letter
161. Large body of water
162. Circular
163. Celestial body
164. Probabilities
165. Exit of work
166. Anglo-Saxon slave
167. Depend
168. Short letter
169. Large body of water
170. Circular
171. Celestial body
172. Probabilities
173. Exit of work
174. Anglo-Saxon slave
175. Depend
176. Short letter
177. Large body of water
178. Circular
179. Celestial body
180. Probabilities
181. Exit of work
182. Anglo-Saxon slave
183. Depend
184. Short letter
185. Large body of water
186. Circular
187. Celestial body
188. Probabilities
189. Exit of work
190. Anglo-Saxon slave
191. Depend
192. Short letter
193. Large body of water
194. Circular
195. Celestial body
196. Probabilities
197. Exit of work
198. Anglo-Saxon slave
199. Depend
200. Short letter
201. Large body of water
202. Circular
203. Celestial body
204. Probabilities
205. Exit of work
206. Anglo-Saxon slave
207. Depend
208. Short letter
209. Large body of water
210. Circular
211. Celestial body
212. Probabilities
213. Exit of work
214. Anglo-Saxon slave
215. Depend
216. Short letter
217. Large body of water
218. Circular
219. Celestial body
220. Probabilities
221. Exit of work
222. Anglo-Saxon slave
223. Depend
224. Short letter
225. Large body of water
226. Circular
227. Celestial body
228. Probabilities
229. Exit of work
230. Anglo-Saxon slave
231. Depend
232. Short letter
233. Large body of water
234. Circular
235. Celestial body
236. Probabilities
237. Exit of work
238. Anglo-Saxon slave
239. Depend
240. Short letter
241. Large body of water
242. Circular
243. Celestial body
244. Probabilities
245. Exit of work
246. Anglo-Saxon slave
247. Depend
248. Short letter
249. Large body of water
250. Circular
251. Celestial body
252. Probabilities
253. Exit of work
254. Anglo-Saxon slave
255. Depend
256. Short letter
257. Large body of water
258. Circular
259. Celestial body
260. Probabilities
261. Exit of work
262. Anglo-Saxon slave
263. Depend
264. Short letter
265. Large body of water
266. Circular
267. Celestial body
268. Probabilities
269. Exit of work
270. Anglo-Saxon slave
271. Depend
272. Short letter
273. Large body of water
274. Circular
275. Celestial body
276. Probabilities
277. Exit of work
278. Anglo-Saxon slave
279. Depend
280. Short letter
281. Large body of water
282. Circular
283. Celestial body
284. Probabilities
285. Exit of work
286. Anglo-Saxon slave
287. Depend
288. Short letter
289. Large body of water
290. Circular
291. Celestial body
292. Probabilities
293. Exit of work
294. Anglo-Saxon slave
295. Depend
296. Short letter
297. Large body of water
298. Circular
299. Celestial body
300. Probabilities
301. Exit of work
302. Anglo-Saxon slave
303. Depend
304. Short letter
305. Large body of water
306. Circular
307. Celestial body
308. Probabilities
309. Exit of work
310. Anglo-Saxon slave
311. Depend
312. Short letter
313. Large body of water
314. Circular
315. Celestial body
316. Probabilities
317. Exit of work
318. Anglo-Saxon slave
319. Depend
320. Short letter
321. Large body of water
322. Circular
323. Celestial body
324. Probabilities
325. Exit of work
326. Anglo-Saxon slave
327. Depend
328. Short letter
329. Large body of water
330. Circular
331. Celestial body
332. Probabilities
333. Exit of work
334. Anglo-Saxon slave
335. Depend
336. Short letter
337. Large body of water
338. Circular
339. Celestial body
340. Probabilities
341. Exit of work
342. Anglo-Saxon slave
343. Depend
344. Short letter
345. Large body of water
346. Circular
347. Celestial body
348. Probabilities
349. Exit of work
350. Anglo-Saxon slave
351. Depend
352. Short letter
353. Large body of water
354. Circular
355. Celestial body
356. Probabilities
357. Exit of work
358. Anglo-Saxon slave
359. Depend
360. Short letter
361. Large body of water
362. Circular
363. Celestial body
364. Probabilities
365. Exit of work
366. Anglo-Saxon slave
367. Depend
368. Short letter
369. Large body of water
370. Circular
371. Celestial body
372. Probabilities
373. Exit of work
374. Anglo-Saxon slave
375. Depend
376. Short letter
377. Large body of water
378. Circular
379. Celestial body
380. Probabilities
381. Exit of work
382. Anglo-Saxon slave
383. Depend
384. Short letter
385. Large body of water
386. Circular
387. Celestial body
388. Probabilities
389. Exit of work
390. Anglo-Saxon slave
391. Depend
392. Short letter
393. Large body of water
394. Circular
395. Celestial body
396. Probabilities
397. Exit of work
398. Anglo-Saxon slave
399. Depend
400. Short letter
401. Large body of water
402. Circular
403. Celestial body
404. Probabilities
405. Exit of work
406. Anglo-Saxon slave
407. Depend
408. Short letter
409. Large body of water
410. Circular
411. Celestial body
412. Probabilities
413. Exit of work
414. Anglo-Saxon slave
415. Depend
416. Short letter
417. Large body of water
418. Circular
419. Celestial body
420. Probabilities
421. Exit of work
422. Anglo-Saxon slave
423. Depend
424. Short letter
425. Large body of water
426. Circular
427. Celestial body
428. Probabilities
429. Exit of work
430. Anglo-Saxon slave
431. Depend
432. Short letter
433. Large body of water
434. Circular
435. Celestial body
436. Probabilities
437. Exit of work
438. Anglo-Saxon slave
439. Depend
440. Short letter
441. Large body of water
442. Circular
443. Celestial body
444. Probabilities
445. Exit of work
446. Anglo-Saxon slave
447. Depend
448. Short letter
449. Large body of water
450. Circular
451. Celestial body
452. Probabilities
453. Exit of work
454. Anglo-Saxon slave
455. Depend
456. Short letter
457. Large body of water
458. Circular
459. Celestial body
460. Probabilities
461. Exit of work
462. Anglo-Saxon slave
463. Depend
464. Short letter
465. Large body of water
466. Circular
467. Celestial body
468. Probabilities
469. Exit of work
470. Anglo-Saxon slave
471. Depend
472. Short letter
473. Large body of water
474. Circular
475. Celestial body
476. Probabilities
477. Exit of work
478. Anglo-Saxon slave
479. Depend
480. Short letter
481. Large body of water
482. Circular
483. Celestial body
484. Probabilities
485. Exit of work

SOCIETY

Mrs. Sid Henry Telephone 321

Step by step we advance along,
Smooth is the road, if we sing a song—
Rocky and rough if we whine and shirk
And cast a frown at our daily work,
Step by step we go through the day
With a smile and cheer, if our hearts are gay—
With clouds of grief if our hearts are sad,
And the day hangs heavy for hearts not glad.
Step by step, oh, the years move fast,
And youth and prime slip into the past.
Let joy and gladness all hearts will fill
To seek and do the Master's will.
—Selected.

B. Tyler is spending a few days business in Dallas this week.

Mrs. R. R. Gillespie is the guest of Mrs. in Shreveport.

Mr. and Mrs. Fay McRae of Little Rock attended the District Sunday School Conference held in this city yesterday at the First Methodist church.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Cox are entertaining at dinner this evening at the home in Fulton.

Mr. Johnson of Nashville was in the city yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Montgomery of Arkansas attended the District Sunday School Conference held at the First Methodist church yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Brent and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Brent of Springfield were among the out of town people attending the Sunday School Conference yesterday.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the First Baptist church held their regular monthly business meeting at the church yesterday, with 25 present. The meeting opened with the song, "Faith of Our Fathers," followed by prayer by Mrs. Guthrie. The devotional was given by Mrs. Charles Laynes, who also conducted the business period. Plans for the New Year's work were discussed by Mrs. Haynes, Mrs. Guthrie and Mrs. Annie Garrett. The meeting was closed by prayer.

Mr. Charles Bryant entertained at dinner last evening in compliment to his daughter, Mrs. Ulmer J. Hester of Union, Miss., and Miss Fay Bryant and Mrs. Harriett Pearson of Albuquerque, N. Mex.

M. M. Smyth, Manager of the Ritchie Grocery Co., made a business trip to Nashville today.

The Friday Music Club will present their regular bi-weekly meeting on January 10 to January 17, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Green, West avenue C, with Mrs. Polkington as director of the study.

Circle No. 6 of the Woman's Missionary Society of the First Methodist church, held their first meeting of the New Year at the home of Mrs. Eve Carrigan on West avenue B, with Mrs. Alice McMath as joint hostess. Mrs. D. B. Thompson acted temporary chairman and gave a very beautiful and inspiring devotional, using the Beatitudes as her text. This being the first meeting in the year, the election of Circle officers was held, resulting as follows: Mrs. R. T. White, Assistant; Mrs. B. B. Brown, Secretary; Mrs. J. M. Smyth, Treasurer; Mrs. Geo. Greene, Manly plans were discussed and pledges made to make 1930 a banner year for the Missionary Society. Fourteen members gave visitor present. During the hour, the hostesses assisted by Mr. Ralph Routon and Mary Della Bryan served a most tempting salted with hot rolls and coffee.

NEW GRAND
The Best for Less
Thursday --- Friday

What is Love? See This Picture to find out.
— Added —
Talking Comedy — Pathe News
Take Advantage of Our Low Prices.
Matinee 10 and 25c
Night 10 and 35c

Rippling skirt fullness, feminine soft jacket and little tuck-in blouse of flat crepe suggest spring.

SARATOGA

Arch Gathright and Dork Stanton spent Saturday in Hope on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Rowe left Saturday for Oklahoma, where they will make their home.

Mrs. J. Rhiner has as her guest her sister, Daisy, from Texarkana.

Mrs. Author Hollands, of Mineral Springs, spent the week end with her mother, Mrs. W. L. McKinney.

Miss Faye Adkinson, of Schick, spent Saturday and Sunday here with her sisters, Mrs. Joe Duncan and Mrs. Jake Hollands.

Miss Jessie Lena Reed, who spent several days visiting her cousin, Mrs. Clarence Gilbert, in Liberty has returned home.

Jack James is suffering with a broken arm, while cranking a tractor. X-ray pictures showed a wrist to be out of place and the bone broken just above the wrist.

Ray Morris, of Nashville, was a business visitor to this place recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Ike Molland and children will leave Monday for Mandeville to live at Mr. Hollands and will be employed there.

Miss Mary Thompson who is teaching here spent the week end with relatives in Ashdown.

Mrs. G. S. Gresham who has been ill at her home for several days is reported to be improved.

Hon. C. D. McLarey and his son, Charles, were business visitors to Hope Sunday.

Mrs. Barney Stanton has as her guest her sister and two children of Idabel, Okla.

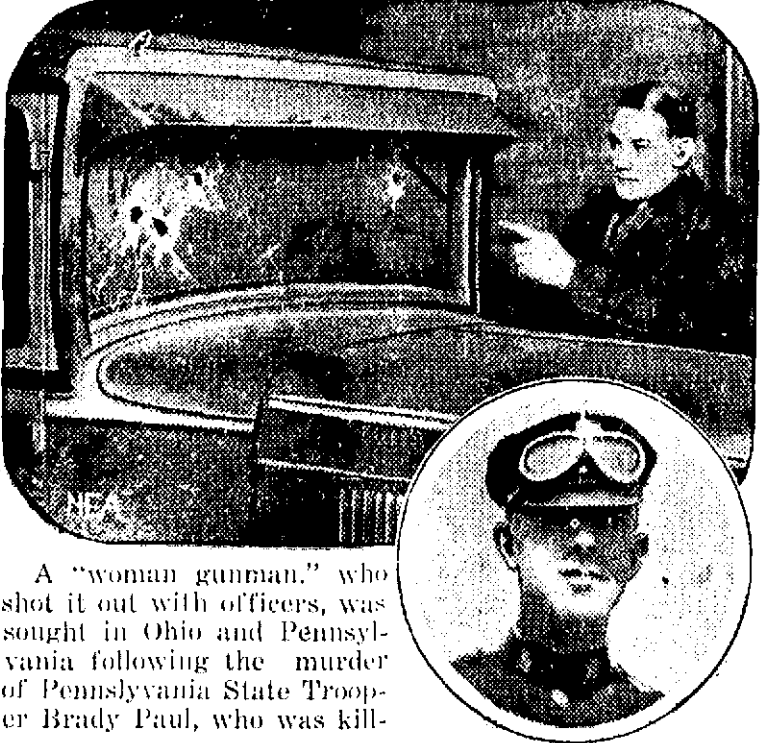

Melvin Clark and Muriel Saunders were visitors to Hope Saturday night.

The senior boys and the high school girls won two games Friday afternoon over the Trinity Creek boys and girls. Scores 18 to 26 and 7 to 10. This is the year for the girls but they have won every game they have played so far and are working to win more.

Mrs. J. N. Vertz and Mrs. Lewis Mannings and baby were recent visitors to Nashville and Washington.

S. R. Jackson of Shreveport, spent

"Woman Gunman" Kills Trooper

A "woman gunman" who shot it out with officers, was sought in Ohio and Pennsylvania following the murder of Pennsylvania State Trooper Brady Paul, who was killed when he and a brother officer sought to arrest the woman and her male companion for an auto theft. Above is shown the auto abandoned by the robbers, with Sheriff Harrison Reynolds pointing to the windshield through which the woman fired. A small child accompanied the couple. Inset is the murdered trooper, Paul.

Distributing $6,000,000 Gift

A former president, a former governor, a great philanthropist . . . two men high in rival political parties . . . a Jew, a Protestant and a Catholic . . . the men pictured above, in New York, cooperated in the distribution of a $6,000,000 charity fund among 34 various institutions. Left to right are Alfred E. Smith, former President Calvin Coolidge, and Julius Rosenwald, Chicago philanthropist. They were executors and trustees of the estate of the late Conrad Hubert, flashlight and automobile accessories manufacturer. The bequests they allotted ranged from $50,000 to $500,000.

Underworld Strikes Back at Cop

From his hospital cot, Police Inspector Henry S. Garvin, above, nemesis of Detroit gangsters, is directing an intensive search for gunmen who attempted to murder him by firing into his auto from a passing car and wounded him seriously. Revenge for Garvin's activities in prosecuting two surviving members of the notorious Jawarski "mob" which terrorized Detroit, Cleveland and other cities, is believed to have been the motive. A Detroit school girl is near death as the result of wounds received when the gangsters riddled Inspector Garvin's auto.

Literary and State Meets Announced

District Meet To Be Held On Or Before April 26, 1930.

John Baumgartner, president of the State Literary and Athletic Association today announced the spring meeting as follows:

District meet on or before April 26, state meet, May second and third. The same selections in music and other contests will be used in both district and state meets.

Selections are as follows: District Literary and Track Meets. These must be held not later than April 26. (It is recommended that the District Literary and Track Meet be held before April 26, if possible.)

Annual State Literary and Track Meet Friday here with his friend, G. E. Stanton.

Miss Mary McJunkins entertained with a farewell party in honor of Miss Martel Hollands who will move her home. After interesting games were played refreshments were served to the following: Miss Carrie Spates, Miss Valeria Stanton, Miss Gladys Carals, Miss Fern Williams, Misses Lillian and Virginia Walkeys, Miss Helen Newman, Miss Carrie McJunkins, Miss Daisy Thomas, Hugh Mobley, Louis Howell, Howard Anderson, Patie McLarey, Leu Gathright, Fred McJunkins, Haskell McJunkins, Grover Webb, Edward Anderson and Newman Taylor.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Anderson of Hope visited relatives here recently and in Yellow Creek.

This will be held May 2 and 3. Music Selections for 1930 Spring Contest

Girls' Trio
"Little Papoose on the Wind Swung Bough," by Cadman, No. 11782. Published by Oliver Ditson Co., 179 Tremont St., Boston, Mass.

Boys' Quartette
"Invictus," by Rubin, Octavo No. 175. Published by A. P. Schmidt Co., 120 Boylston St., Boston, Mass.

Boys' Voice
"Sunrise and Sunset," by Spross. Published by The John Church Co., 1107 Jackson St., Cincinnati, Ohio.

Girls' Voice
"The Sunbeams," by Clokey (medium voice to be used). Published by Oliver Ditson Co., 179 Tremont St., Boston, Mass.

Violin
"Melody in E Flat," by Tschaiikovsky. Published by Oliver Ditson Co., 179 Tremont St., Boston, Mass.

Piano
"Valse Caprice," by Frommerz, No. 741. Published by Art Publication Society, Clayton Station, St. Louis, Mo.

Boys' Glee Club
"Deep River" (for three parts), arranged by Trinkhaus, No. 2971. Published by M. Witmark and Sons, 1650 Broadway, New York City.

Girls' Glee Club
"Out in the Fields" (for two parts). By Paul Bliss, No. 2202. Published by The John Church Co., 1107 Jackson St., Cincinnati, Ohio.

Orchestra

"March Heroique," by Schubert—Master Series for Young Orchestra, No. 9. Published by G. Schirmer, Inc., 3 East 43rd St., New York City. (This selection is only suggestive—may choose own selection.)

Debate Subject for 1930 Spring Contest.

The subject for debate will be the same as the one to be used by the University of Arkansas, namely: "Resolved: That Installation Buying of Personal Property as Now Practiced in the United States Is Both Socially and Economically Desirable." (A number of requests that we use only one subject have been received. Unless an urgent request is made in time for a second question to be submitted, the Committee will submit only one question for debate this year.)

In India Crisis

Lord Irwin, British viceroy for India (above), and Mahatma Gandhi, native leader in the newest movement for Indian independence and complete separation from England, are pictured here. It was feared that the breakdown of conferences between them would be followed by serious disturbances.

"Padre of the Silent" Hears Confessions Of Deaf-Mutes in Sign Language

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 8.—(NEA)—In a land where silence is absolute, Father John H. Cumiskey, S. J., "Padre of the Silent," is gifted with eloquence.

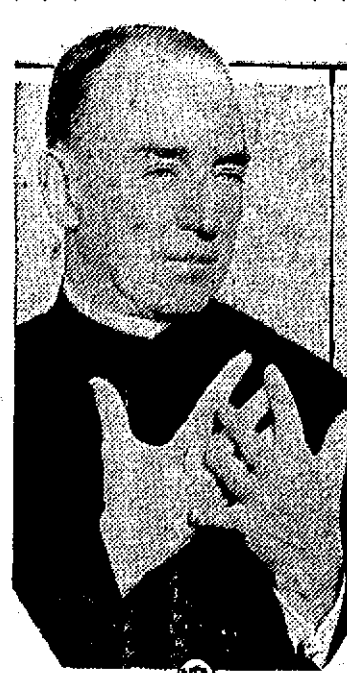

Each day he turns from a land where children and grown-ups talk to a strange world of science, where fingers and faces and motions speak. For the past 12 years this St. Ignace College priest has devoted his time to deafmutes.

In a special confessional, where a plate glass window replaces the usual wire screen and where light supplants the customary darkness, Father Cumiskey hears the confessions of hundreds of little children whose lips have never uttered a word, whose ears have never known the beauty of speech or music.

Father Cumiskey has become teacher, confessor and chum combined to some 300 little deafmutes in the three institutions here.

"All deaf-mutes could speak, but they don't know how," he explains. "They are classified in two divisions. There are the congenital deaf, those who are born unable to hear, and those who become deaf later in life due to accident or disease. These we call the adventitiously deaf."

"They have never heard sounds and their perfectly formed and normal voice organs are powerless to speak. The language they speak with their fingers, hands and expressions year.)

Father Cumiskey

Spelling Contest

The spellers to be used in the spelling contest will be the State-adopted text and the New Business Speller, published by Lyons and Carnahan, Chicago.

Personal Mention

Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Wilson, of Texarkana, attended the McRae funeral yesterday. Mr. Wilson is president of the State National Bank of that city.

E. J. Bodman, vice president of the Union Trust Co., of Little Rock, attended the McRae funeral yesterday.

Mrs. Will Oglesby, of Texarkana, attended the McRae funeral in Hope Tuesday.

Tom Anderson, of the American Company, of Little Rock, was in Hope Tuesday to attend the McRae funeral. Mr. Anderson is a Hope boy, and was formerly connected with the McRae, Plunkett, Jarrell Grocery firm of this city.

Doy Rast, of Newport, attended the Southwest Arkansas meeting of county and home demonstration agents in Hope today. Mr. Rast is agricultural commissioner of the Arkansas Bankers Association, and is also an expert seed breeder.

W. L. McArthur, of Little Rock, attended the meeting of county and home demonstration agents in Hope today. Mr. McArthur is state agent for the Chile nitrate of soda interests.

is one of pictures, not words. It is a beautiful and graceful language totally different in idiom from the language of speech.

"It was invented in the 18th century by Abbe de l'Epee and is universal. A deaf-mute can go anywhere in the world and converse with others acquainted with the signs."

"True, they do combine actual words with pictures by spelling them out on their pictures, but picture words by way of illustration are used as a rule. If a word can be used easier than finding a picture to illustrate their meaning, then they use the word."

The minds of deaf-mute children are almost blank when they first attend school, according to the priest. They have none of the impressions other children have gained by hearing. Their schooling is started by showing them stuffed animals and drawings of definite objects.

"We show them, for example, a lion. A small stuffed lion and then make the sign of the lion—a hand held like a claw, drawn backward over the forehead. We repeat the scores of time, pointing at the same time to the word 'lion' written on the blackboard. This is carried out with other objects until the impression is registered."

John H. Greene, formerly of Hope, and now state supervisor of the Reliance Life Insurance Co., with offices in Little Rock, was a business visitor in Hope Wednesday.

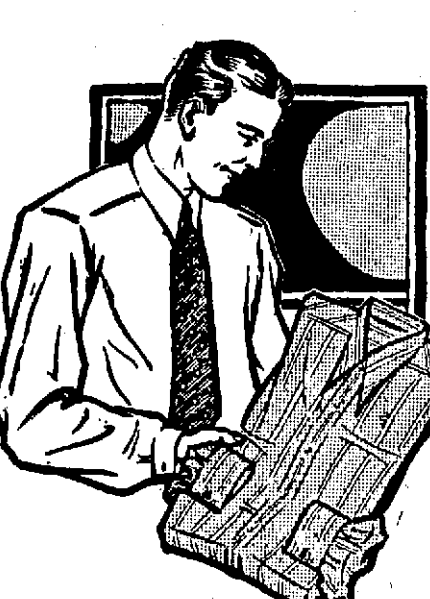

Too Late To Classify

TAKEN UP—One Bay horse mule. Chas. Kendall, Pondmaster. Jan. 8, 1930.

REAL CHILI
Made from whole meat
MORELAND'S
Drug Store and Confectionery

Patterson's Semi-Annual Sale of Manhattan Shirts and Pajamas

Now is the time to stock up at these low prices. A nation-wide selling of Manhattan's Fine Garments Twenty-Five Percent Off.

This sale offers wonderful opportunities to men who demand the best in Shirts and Pajamas.

Shirts of Broadcloth, Madras and other fine materials, in solid colors and fancy stripes. Neckband with stiff collars.

Pajamas in solid colors or fancy, blazer stripes. Made of Broadcloth, Madras or Rayon.

$2.00 SHIRTS and $1.65 PAJAMAS
$2.50-$2.65 SHIRTS and $1.85 PAJAMAS
$3-$3.15 SHIRTS and $2.25 PAJAMAS
$3.50-$4 SHIRTS and $2.85 PAJAMAS
$4.50-$5-$5.50 SHIRTS and $3.65 PAJAMAS

Remodeling Sale of Suits-O'coats Still Offers Hope's Best Values

Fashion Park Clothes, Style-Plus Clothes
Patterson's Special

1/3 OFF!

Startling reductions on authentic styles, known fabrics and a great variety of good patterns, in this high grade Men's Suits, Topcoats and Overcoats.

$25 Suits and Overcoats $20.00
$30 Suits and Overcoats $23.35
$39 Suits and Overcoats $26.00
$50 Suits and Overcoats $33.35
$55 Suits and Overcoats $36.65
$60 Suits and Overcoats $40.00

Patterson's
DEPARTMENT STORE
"Where Price and Quality Meet"

We Suggest That You

Own your own home.

Built From--- —Lumber and Building Materials Manufactured In Your Own Home Town.

Free--

We will give a Prize to the first baby boy, Robert Ewing Ward, and also the first baby girl, Dorothy June Wilson, born in Hempstead County in 1930.

Our grades are up to standard. Prices low, and service unexcelled. We also suggest a JOHNS-MANVILLE ASBESTOS SHINGLE ROOF, to cover the home of all 1930 babies.

In our 31 years in business, we have never known of a better roof at any price. And we sell it at a price you can afford to pay.

Hope Lumber Co.

Talbot Feild, President and Manager.

FACE of SPORT NEWS

NOVEMBER SLIDES
by Henry L. Burd

That Bass-Morgan thing... if somebody comes to you before a fight and whispers in your ear that the bout is in the bag and that it will end in the second round with Whoozie winning and if you then went to the fight and saw Whoozie blast the knockout punch very artistically on Whoozie's whiskers just as your informant had divulged—now what would you do?

That was the situation faced by Chairman Farley of the New York boxing board in the Bass-Morgan bout the other night. Far was whispering to Farley before the affair that Morgan was to take the prize in Round Two. Round Two came and out went Morgan on his ear, after administering a lacing to Bass in the first round. Naturally Mr. Farley smelled the limburger on the radiator and went into action. Farley discovered there had been talk to the effect that Phil Glassman, manager of Bass, had guaranteed the junior lightweight champion $30,000 if Bass won the title. Of course this is not an uncommon arrangement among the cauliflowerers, stipulations of the same sort being made public by Mr. John Leo (Lilac) Kearns just before the Walker-Loughran engagement in Chicago. When a fighter feels his title slipping, he usually wants a couple of gold pieces to take along to his lawyers.

A Legal Ending

Even had there been no evidence of unsavory doings at the crossroads, the bout easily could have ended just as it did and still have been on the up and up, as my friend Hosmer, the rising young lift, might aver. Morgan was as well washed up as a ship's deck. It has been no secret for several years that Benny Bass totes a lot of explosive matter in either mitt. There should have been odds on Bass, of course, but perhaps not so high as 10 to 1. When Broadway's big-hearted wolves offer to put up 10 of their very personal piasters against

DID YOU KNOW THAT—

Henry Edwards of the American League service bureau (that means publicity) tried to arrange a 100-yard dash between Reynolds and Rothrock last summer... and at the last minute, with photographers, clockers and chroniclers on hand, both principals backed out... they feared injury, they said... Art Whispering Shires heard about their refusal to run... he offered Henry his modest services... just in order to help he would run him any distance and make him believe he was dragging an anchor... and when Reynolds refused, Shires scolded him at one length for passing up the greatest publicity chance of the era... "You guys simply don't understand news values," he told the two speed demons.

one of your own hardearned mugs, there must be decay in Denmark somewhere.

However, it still was a logical ending, that is, it looked logical. Bass is regarded as the better boy. Nearly every boxer around Morgan's weight has taken a fall out of him at one time or another—without the title at stake. It was expected he would be relieved of his title the first time he fought a man at the weights.

Abolishing the Division

It would have looked strange had Morgan beaten Bass. It was the first round of that fight that looked phonetic.

Now the board has acted to abolish the junior lightweight division. This was a synthetic division, anyway, created to accommodate a bunch of good young men of that weight. The title doesn't mean a lot, except for promotional purposes. A few of the other titles might well be abolished. As Solid Man Muldoon says, "they don't mean much any more."

MEMPHIS DEVILTRY

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Jan. 8.—While a pastor of a prominent church here preached a sermon on "Giving the Devil His Due," a robber ransacked his home and escaped with money and valuable heirlooms.

ONCE UPON A TIME

David Belasco, now known as "Dean of the American theater," was a bareback rider in a circus. He also was a necktie salesman. Belasco's friendship for a priest was responsible for the unusual clothes he has long affected.

Home Run King Refuses $75,000

Bambino Shakes Head To Proposed Contract for Two Years.

NEW YORK, Jan. 8.—(AP)—Ten years to the day after he signed his first Yankee contract calling for $10,000, Babe Ruth Tuesday nonchalantly rejected an offer of $75,000, the salary paid the president of the United States. At a conference with Jacob Ruppert, president of the New York American league baseball club, and E. G. Barlow, its secretary, the home run hitter shook his head when it suggested that the club would be willing to pay him $150,000 for a two-year crop of home runs.

Ruth countered with a proposal that he affix his well-known signature to a contract calling for $85,000 annually for three years. This suggestion, Colonel Ruppert emphatically vetoed, declaring the club would not agree to a three-year contract at any terms, although Ruth pointed out that he had just closed a three-year contract at $70,000 a year.

Is Yankees' Top Price

The matter rested with a difference of $10,000 in money and a year in contractual limits. Yankee officials said they had made their "top offer" to the Babe and the next move must be made by the player. Ruth said he would leave Saturday for St. Petersburg, Fla., training camp of the Yankees.

The big slugger's comment on the $75,000 offer was that it was "not enough," while Secretary Barrow insisted it was generous, perhaps to a fault.

The big outfielder brought up the question of exhibition games. The club was understood to be willing to make a stipulation limiting the number of exhibitions in which Ruth should be called on to participate. This the Yankees planned to do in any event as the wear and tear of the extra contests on the slugger's legs were regarded with apprehension last year.

Although he has played 10 years in a Yankee uniform, Ruth has had only three contracts in that time. When his release was purchased from the Boston Red Sox for a price reported to have been $125,000 he had a hold-over contract calling for $10,000 a year. This the Yankees took over and he played in 1920 under its terms. For 1921 he had a contract calling for $25,000, and he was signed in 1922 to a document running for five years at $32,500 a year. He then jumped to the forefront of high finance in baseball by signing for three years at $70,000 a year.

Secretary Barrow said Tuesday night that he had no idea what the next move would be, nor where nor when. "It is up to the Babe," he said.

There was no idea in baseball circles generally that the home run hitter ever will be classed as a hold-out. Negotiations as to salary may be continued until the season opens in April although probably Ruth's name will decorate a Yankee contract long before that time.

Ruth already is baseball's highest salaried performer. His last contract exceeding the amount paid K. M. Landis, baseball commissioner, by $5000 a year. He was, however, slightly under the salary of the president of the United States but the Yankee officers Tuesday offered to remedy that.

The big fellow gave full approval of his present condition "as good as ever" he declared, as he laughed at suggestions that he might not be able to go at full speed for three more hectic baseball seasons.

HEAD AND BACK KEPT HURTING

Tennessee Lady Took Cardui and Says She Felt Great Improvement.

Johnson City, Tenn.—Mrs. W. H. Hopson, of 201 Lamont Street, this city, writes:

"My health got very bad eleven years ago. I was very weak and my back hurt most all the time. For awhile, my head ached constantly. When I would stoop over, I would take 'blind spells,' and often I would be very dizzy.

"I suffered on this way, for some time, until I happened to read about Cardui. I began taking it. I noticed a great improvement in my health. I grew stronger and I felt much better. I quit having the dizzy spells.

"Since then, I have taken Cardui several times when I needed a tonic. I always improved after I took it. I think it is a fine medicine. I felt like a different woman after I had taken it. I feel like I would like to recommend it to others."

For over fifty years, women who had suffered, or who had gotten into a run-down, weak condition, have been enthusiastic in their praise of Cardui.

TAKE CARDUI
Helps Women to Health
Theodore's Black-Draught should also be used in connection with Cardui, as a laxative, 25¢.

Pope, 50 Years a Priest, Emerges From Vatican

Pope Pius XI is shown in this remarkable photo as he prayed before the high altar of the Cathedral of St. John Lateran, the church where 50 years before he had been ordained to the priesthood. His history-making trip to the cathedral was begun early in the morning when, without previous announcement, he and a small party motored from the Vatican into Italian territory. This was the first time since 1870 that a Pope actually had left Vatican soil. Since Pope Pius is the Bishop of Rome, and St. John Lateran the Church of the Diocese, the visit also marked his taking possession of the cathedral which is traditionally his own. This was the Pope's first act in observance of his Golden Jubilee.

Crime News Pours Forth When Cop Goes On Carpet

NEW YORK, Jan. 7.—Put a cop on the carpet instead of a gangster and find out things about crime.

That's a bit of police technique that New York's finest has discovered of value in following up leads in several of the biggest recent exploits of the underworld.

Silence of hostile witnesses balks the courts, but the police have their undercover sources.

With lines of investigation into the

Rothstein, Frankie Yale, Frank Marlow and other notorious cases, apparently covering in a single episode of a dinner in honor of a city magistrate, the citizens are learning inside tips of Governor A. Whalen, police commissioner.

Arthur C. Johnson, detective, attended a banquet given by the Tepecano club, a political organization, for Magistrate Albert H. Vitale.

Seven armed men raided the Bronx dining hall and took, among other things, Detective Johnson's pistol, which meant, of course, a quiz for him.

Various testimony at the trial of Johnson before Commissioner Whalen has revealed that some of the 40 guests had police records and that the alleged purpose of the holdup was the recovery of a "murder contract" by which the deaths of two gunmen were bought.

Ciro Terranova, powerful artichoke merchant, alleged in the police story to have arranged the hold-up, was allowed his liberty.

He derided the police story of the "murder contract," which was said to promise a Chicago gunman $20,000 for killing the two racketeers, Yale and Marlow, who were slain within a year

Kentucky Grid Captain To Lead His Fifth Team

LEXINGTON, Ky., Jan. 8.—(AP)—The Kentucky football eleven next fall will be led by a linebacker who has captained every athletic team with which he played through high school and college.

L. G. "Floppy" Forquer, 212-pound guard, will succeed little Will Ed. Covington, 145-pound halfback who led the Wildcats to their best record in 15 years, climaxing the season with a 6 to 0 tie with Tennessee.

Forquer captained football, basketball, basketball and track teams at Newcastle, Ky., high school in his senior year.

Mother First Passenger of Young Ft. Smith Pilot

FORT SMITH, Ark., Jan. 8.—(AP)—Vincent M. Miles, Jr., 16, took his mother into the air as his first passenger when he received his pilot's license from the department of commerce here.

The 16-year-old aviator passed his examinations in the morning and in the afternoon his mother, Mrs. Vincent M. Miles, consented to go aloft with the newest licensed aviator in Fort Smith.

Chicago gunmen have been expected of the Yale and Marlow murders since the first police investigation months ago.

The police have said heretofore that the identities of the Yale and Marlow executioners had been established. The suspects included Fred Burke, alias Dane, now sought for questioning about Chicago St. Valentine's day massacre.

But nothing, the police commissioner said, could be done about either murder because all legal proof was locked behind the underworld's impenetrable silence.

McCormick-Deering Farm Machines
South Arkansas Implement Co., Inc.
212 South Walnut Street

A Tonic for Man or Woman
Dr. PIERCE'S
Golden Medical Discovery
AT ALL DRUG STORES

Heads U. S. Delegation to London

Here is the latest photograph of Secretary of State Henry L. Stimson, who heads the United States delegation attending the naval arms limitation conference at London this month. He is President Hoover's personal representative at this important gathering.

Lindbergh Tests New Monoplane

Putting It Through Its Paces for More Than An Hour.

BURBANK, Cal., Jan. 7.—Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh and his wife tested out their new specially-built Lockheed Sirius monoplane here Monday, putting it through its paces for more than an hour.

Each took a turn at piloting the orange and black open ship.

"It's very satisfactory," the Colonel said. "We are greatly pleased."

"We expect to remain in Los Angeles for two weeks longer to inspect transportation facilities of the T. A. T.-Maddux airplanes and make brief flights to San Francisco."

OAK GROVE NEWS

Health is fine at present and the farmers are very busy cutting stalks.

Mr. Earl Toss and family spent Sunday with Mr. Deward and family.

Mr. R. L. May and family spent Sunday with Louie Flontz and family of Bright Star.

Miss Hattie Jackson and Grace Collier, spent Saturday night with Mrs. Leo Collier.

Mr. Alonzo Wise spent Saturday night with Mr. Ernest Ross.

Mrs. Frank Mullens and children spent Sunday with Mrs. Mike Pertell.

Mr. Ernest Ross and family spent Sunday with G. H. Wise and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Mullens spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. C. E. Sanders.

Miss Blanche Ross spent Wednesday night with Miss Hattie Jackson.

Mr. Sam England called on Miss Lucell Putnam Sunday afternoon.

Miss Cathleen Ross spent Monday night with Mrs. Leo Collier.

No More Gas In Stomach and Bowels

If you wish to be permanently relieved of gas in stomach and bowels, take Baalmann's Gas Tablets, which are prepared especially for stomach gas and all the bad effects resulting from gas pressure.

That empty, gnawing feeling at the pit of the stomach will disappear; that anxious, nervous feeling with heart palpitation will vanish, and you will again be able to take a deep breath without discomfort.

That drowsy, sleepy feeling after dinner will be replaced by a desire for entertainment. Bloating will cease. Your limbs, arms and fingers will no longer feel cold and "go to sleep" because Baalmann's Gas Tablets prevent gas from interfering with the circulation. Get the genuine, in the yellow package at any good drug store. Price $1.

Always on hand at WARD & SON.

Half a Ton of Pork

You could get a lot of pork chops from the loins of this hog. He's a purebred Duroc boar owned by Fred Laptad of Midland, Kan. The giant hog, weighing more than half a ton, measures seven feet seven inches from stem to stern, and is used for breeding purposes. His offspring are numbered by the hundreds. The boar is shown here with Alice Laptad, a daughter of the owner.

Wants make the man

BABIES are born with but one want—food. When men grow old, their wants again become few—quiet corners, friendly faces, peace.

But in the years between, men and women are living and developing to the full extent of their powers. Then their wants are legion.

People today are wanting and getting more things that make for complete living than ever before. To these common needs of every one of the advertisements in this newspaper bring invaluable opportunities of satisfaction every day.

It is the function of the advertisements to enable you not only to get what you want—but to get the very best that your money can buy. They help you to decide which automobile, which set of furniture, which radio to buy. They assure you that your wants will be more than met—that they will be wisely and completely satisfied.

The minutes you spend in reading the advertisements may bring you years of satisfaction.

POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

City Election February 25, 1930.
For Mayor
The Star is authorized to announce the candidacy of CLAUDE STUART for mayor of Hope, subject to the action of the Democratic city primary February 25.

The Star is authorized to announce the candidacy of A. L. Betts for mayor of Hope, subject to the action of the Democratic city primary February 25.

The Star is authorized to announce the candidacy of Ruff Boyett for Mayor of Hope, subject to the action of the Democratic city primary February 25.

For Marshal
The Star is authorized to announce the candidacy of M. D. (Miles) Downs for marshal of Hope, subject to the action of the Democratic city primary February 25.

The Star is authorized to announce the candidacy of Clarence E. Baker for City Marshal of Hope, subject to the action of the Democratic city primary February 25.

For City Recorder
The Star is authorized to announce the candidacy of Fred Webb for recorder of Hope, subject to the action of the Democratic city primary February 25.

For City Treasurer
The Star is authorized to announce the candidacy of J. W. Harper for re-election of City Treasurer, subject to the action of the Democratic city primary February 25.

FOR COUNTY OFFICE

For Sheriff
The Star is authorized to announce the candidacy of J. E. Bearden as a candidate for the office of Sheriff, subject to the action of voters of Hempstead county at the August primary election.

For County Judge
The Star is authorized to announce the candidacy of H. M. Stephens for county judge of Hempstead county, subject to the action of the Democratic county primary August 12.

Buy It! Rent It!
Sell It! Find It!

WANT ADS

Count five words to the line. Rates 10c per line for one insertion, minimum 30c. 7c per line for three insertions, minimum 50c. 5c per line for six or more insertions. 5c per line for 26 insertions.

PHONE 768

WANTED

Have you a good business residence or farm for sale. Write box 98, Hope Star.

WANTED, Roomers and Boarders. Mrs. Judson 18-1C.

FOR SALE

30 acres farm land with story and a half house, seven rooms. Just being repaired, painted inside and out. Fine well of water. One and one-half mile from Hope, just off Fulton highway. J. C. Williams, 820 South Elm. 7-31p.

FOR Dressmaking, alterations or tailoring call Mrs. W. Harrie at 315 East Third street, phone 344. 62-1C-e.

Community Store and L.L.M. Boswell station for rent or sale. See L.L.M. Boswell 1-1C-e.

FOR RENT

FOR RENT—Black land farm. More than 100 acres in cultivation. Tenant must have ample force to handle. On highway, near school, close to town. Call 32, Hope. Mrs. T. C. Jobe. 65-1C-e.

FOR RENT—Black land farm. More than 100 acres in cultivation. Tenant must have ample force to handle. On highway, near school, close to town. Call 32, Hope. 60-1C-e.

FOR RENT—Five room house, furnished, modern. Apply Middlebrook Grocery. Phone 607. 8-1C-e.

FOR RENT—Modern home, newly papered and furnished throughout. Close in. Little Middlebrooks. Phone 364. 60-1C-e.

FOR RENT—Three furnished rooms. Apply Rettig Store. Jan. 3-1C-e.

FOR RENT—5 room house on East 2nd, street on pavement. $15.00 per month. Phone 105. 2-1C-e.

FOR RENT—Three-room apartment at 126 North Hervey street. Mrs. Jno. H. Arnold. 3-6t.

FOR RENT—Furnished apartment. Phone 351. 3-1C-e.

FOR RENT—Fine room house at 505 North Elm street. Close in. Call Mrs. T. M. Battle 422W. Jan. 6-31p.

LOST

LOST—Friday afternoon near Missouri Pacific, a White Gold link bracelet bearing a fraternity crest. Reward for return to this office or to Gatha Matthews. Jan 6-2p.

LOST—Pink crepe de chine scarf, with hand pointed Swans on either end. Finder please call 148. Jan 7-2p.

LOST—One 4 bladed bone handle Rogers steel knife. If found call 245 for reward. Jan. 8-1C.

OUT OUR WAY

BATTLE FIELD NEWS

Bro. Leroy preached here Saturday night and Sunday. He gave Bro. Compton his place. Both sermons were fine.

The stork visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Wilson, leaving them an eight pound girl, christened Dorothy June.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Vickers of Garland visited Mr. and Mrs. Ben Wilson Sunday.

Mr. Otis Butler and family of Holly Springs visited Mr. and Mrs. Will Tarpley Sunday.

Miss Irma Smith accompanied by Misses Hazel and Roxie Watkins, made a business trip to Hope Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Malone from near Spring Hill, La., spent the week end with Mr. B. W. Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Smith of Fair View visited friends here Sunday.

Mr. J. W. McBoy returned home last week after an extended visit with relatives in Texas.

Mrs. Ellenburg of El Dorado is visiting Mrs. Roe this week.

We are sorry to report that Mrs. Lou Tarpley has been on the sick list this week.

Little Misses Estell and Kathryn Smith of Fairview spent Sunday with Mrs. Rosa Smith.

The stork visited Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Conway Saturday night Dec. 28, leaving them a nice girl named Lily Emily.

ROCKY MOUND NEWS

Singing at this place was well enjoyed Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Upchurch attended singing at this place Sunday night. We were glad to have them with us, and welcome them back any time they will come.

Mr. and Mrs. Medford Hazzard moved in their apartment Wednesday.

Willie Dale Purdie spent Thursday night with Lavern Purdie.

Mrs. Stevens spent Sunday with Parlee Basswell and Florence Fincher.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hurston spent Sunday with Nelson Purdie and family.

The party given at Mr. and Mrs. Medford Hazzard Friday night, was a big success. A large crowd was there, and everyone had a nice time.

Confand Mitchell of DeAnn spent Saturday night with Doyle and Tod Purdie.

Miss Delma Johnson of Henry Chapel spent Saturday night and Sunday with Frances Monts.

Faye Pickard spent Sunday afternoon with Lois Lingo.

Otis Purdie and family spent Sunday with his parents L. J. Purdie near Bluff Springs.

A. W. Pickard and family spent Saturday night with Doyle and Tod Purdie.

Swims and Runs, Nervous Man Gains 9 Lbs.

"I swim and run much better now than I ever could, due to Vinol. Nervousness is gone, and I gained 9 pounds."—Alfred Maio.

Vinol is a delicious compound of cod liver peptone, iron, etc. Nervous, easily tired, anemic people are surprised how Vinol gives new pep, sound sleep and a BIG appetite. The very FIRST bottle often adds several pounds weight to thin children or adults. Tastes delicious. John S. Gibson Drug Co. —adv.

Break Up that COLD

Take Thoxine Cold Capsules, a modern preparation which contains nequiline, acetanilid, or harmful drugs. The very first dose brings relief from that stuffy, uncomfortable feeling. Guaranteed to give quicker, better relief than anything you have ever used for colds, or your money back—50c.

THOXINE COLD CAPSULES

Sold and recommended by DRUG COMPANY JOHN P. COX

Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. Clifford Messer and Mr. Messer.

Mrs. Gem Bearden and children spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Stroud of near Washington.

Norene Pickard spent Saturday night with Shirley Bearden.

Pearl Monts spent the week end with Mildred Johnson of Henry Chapel.

Miss Estelle Purdie is on the sick list this week.

Tad and Doyle Purdie spent Sunday with Garland Mitchell of near DeAnn.

Mrs. Ralph Conley, and children left today for a ten day visit with relatives at Memphis.

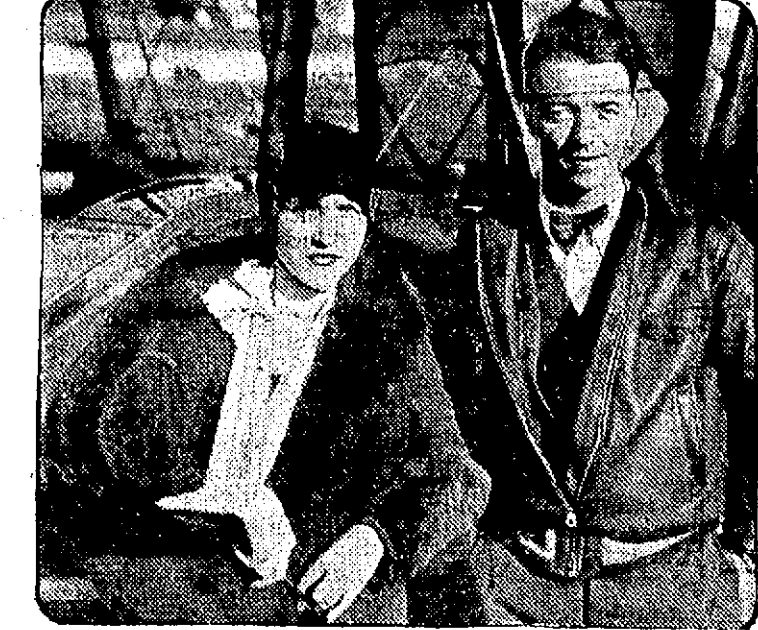

Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Messer.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Fincher of Henry Chapel attended singing at this place Sunday night. Everybody was glad to see them back.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Butler spent Sunday with Florence Fincher.

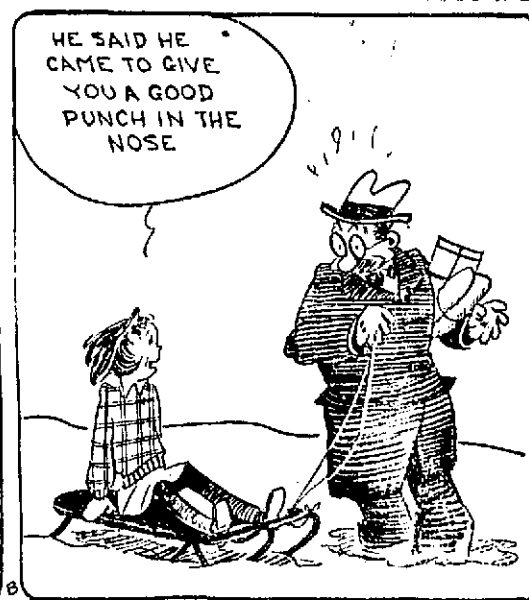

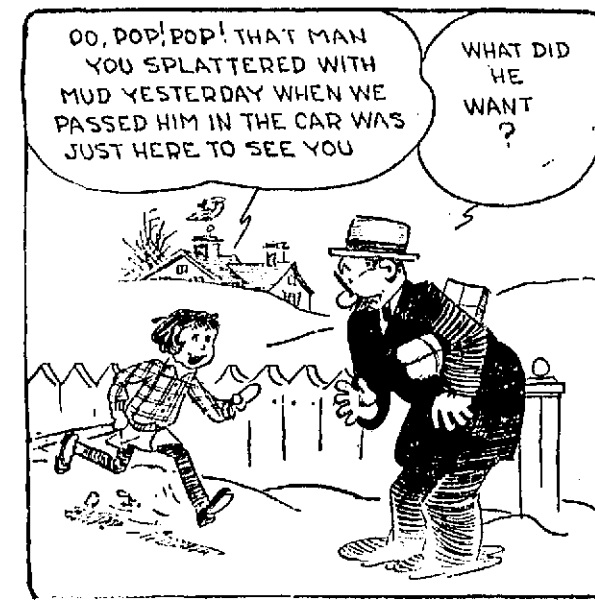

Miss Mac Beatty spent Friday night with the Misses Pickards.

Viola Gentry, Out Again, Up Again!

To keep her pilot's license, she just had to get in several hours of flying this month. So almost as soon as she could leave the hospital, where injuries from an air crash confined her for several months, Viola Gentry, noted woman flyer, went up in a plane again. Here you see her just before she hopped off in an amphibian craft with Daniel J. Grimm, shown beside her, at New York. Note her right arm was still in a sling as a result of the forced landing which resulted fatally for Jack Ashcraft, her partner on an attempt to set a new endurance flight record last June.

MOM'N POP

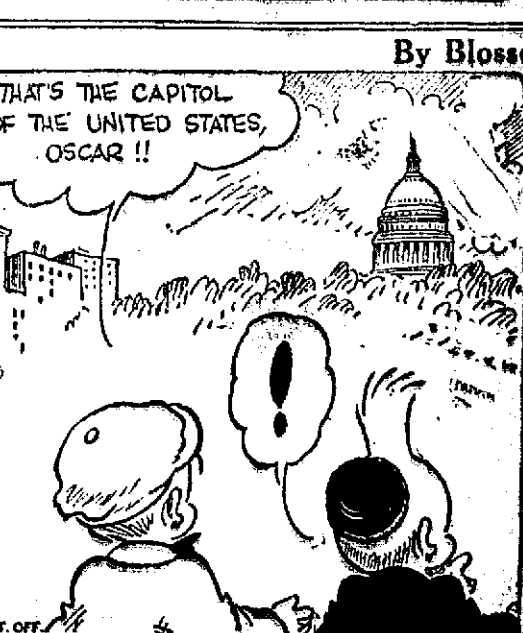

FRECKLES AND HIS FRIENDS

ONE PUNCH DESERVES ANOTHER

BEFORE THEIR VERY EYES!

Lower Manhattan. Those amazing, pompous turrets. Telephone building, pyre-like Bankers' Trust structure. Woolworth. Equitable Trust, a dozen others. How they glared down on the murky river with its pretentious ocean liner, snorting, wheezing little tugboats, ferries and freight barges!

Past Brooklyn. Past the untiring Goddess who symbolizes freedom. On past Staten Island and then at last onto the gray Atlantic.

Judith, long, long after, could shut her eyes and still see clearly the panorama of the harbor unfolding just as it had that morning. The morning of her marriage to Arthur Knight.

He told her so much as they stood against the rail, anticipating questions before she asked them, delivering an elementary lecture on seamanship. He pair were among the last to leave the deck and go inside.

Judith was wearing her broad-tail coat and the Agnes turban. She looked Parisian with the added dash of independent American girlhood.

From topmost tip of the turban to narrow black suede toes she was groomed smartly.

Arthur led the way to their cabin. A bright-faced young steward obligingly assisted her to a veritable bower of baskets and boxes of roses instead.

"Why—Arthur!"

Ho wheeled. Diplomatically the steward had ducked into the corridor. Arthur Knight and his bride were alone at last.

Judith found herself in her husband's arms. Arthur's shoulder so comforting. Arthur's kisses ardent and comforting, too. Arthur roughing her hair with clumsy, caressing fingers, whispering his adoration.

A prayer at that instant arose from the inmost center of Judith Knight's heart.

"Dear God," the prayer said "teach me to love my husband."

She wanted to love Arthur Knight. With all her soul the girl wanted to love him.

There were several other honeymooners on board. There was one other couple just married who sat at the captain's table. Then there were two middle-aged sisters there who affected the brightest of sport clothes. There was a solitary elderly gentleman whom no one seemed to know much about. There was a Germanic young man who said he was enjoying his first vacation in seven years. There was the very attractive Mrs. Franklin Monroe West and her less obtrusive husband.

Mrs. West was a flamboyant brunette, probably 35, though looking nearly 10 years less. Her gowns were as perfect as Judith Knight's and she wore far more jewelry.

Mrs. West was vivacious, generally popular, and she urged her friendship upon Judith.

Judith and Knight were both delighted to discover, as the trip wore on, that the girl was a natural sailor. There were stiff winds before the ship reached the gulf stream. The sea became so rough that portholes had to be closed.

Sea legs were as natural as land ones to Arthur Knight. Now he found that, no matter how the sea might pitch and roar, Judith was good for five times around the sun deck each morning. She enjoyed lazy afternoons in her stateroom chair, well tucked up in blankets.

"They had their meals at the captain's table and Judith thought the slim, sharp-featured officer unusually interesting. He had so little to say but his words had such point. She was equally attracted by the ruddy, weather-stained bronze of his face.

Arthur Knight picked up acquaintances. He knew the ship's officers, found one or two men with whom he had had business relations, and he brought them all to Judith.

Knight fairly radiated pride when other men paid his pretty young bride compliments. The fact that Mrs. Knight was so constantly surrounded by masculine attention set tongues going in many a strictly feminine circle of busybodies.

There were several other honeymooners on board. There was one other couple just married who sat at the captain's table. Then there were two middle-aged sisters there who affected the brightest of sport clothes. There was a solitary elderly gentleman whom no one seemed to know much about. There was a Germanic young man who said he was enjoying his first vacation in seven years. There was the very attractive Mrs. Franklin Monroe West and her less obtrusive husband.

Mrs. West was a flamboyant brunette, probably 35, though looking nearly 10 years less. Her gowns were as perfect as Judith Knight's and she wore far more jewelry.

Mrs. West was vivacious, generally popular, and she urged her friendship upon Judith.

Judith and Knight were both delighted to discover, as the trip wore on, that the girl was a natural sailor. There were stiff winds before the ship reached the gulf stream. The sea became so rough that portholes had to be closed.

Sea legs were as natural as land ones to Arthur Knight. Now he found that, no matter how the sea might pitch and roar, Judith was good for five times around the sun deck each morning. She enjoyed lazy afternoons in her stateroom chair, well tucked up in blankets.

"They had their meals at the captain's table and Judith thought the slim, sharp-featured officer unusually interesting. He had so little to say but his words had such point. She was equally attracted by the ruddy, weather-stained bronze of his face.

Arthur Knight picked up acquaintances. He knew the ship's officers, found one or two men with whom he had had business relations, and he brought them all to Judith.

Knight fairly radiated pride when other men paid his pretty young bride compliments. The fact that Mrs. Knight was so constantly surrounded by masculine attention set tongues going in many a strictly feminine circle of busybodies.

There were several other honeymooners on board. There was one other couple just married who sat at the captain's table. Then there were two middle-aged sisters there who affected the brightest of sport clothes. There was a solitary elderly gentleman whom no one seemed to know much about. There was a Germanic young man who said he was enjoying his first vacation in seven years. There was the very attractive Mrs. Franklin Monroe West and her less obtrusive husband.

Mrs. West was a flamboyant brunette, probably 35, though looking nearly 10 years less. Her gowns were as perfect as Judith Knight's and she wore far more jewelry.

Mrs. West was vivacious, generally popular, and she urged her friendship upon Judith.

Judith and Knight were both delighted to discover, as the trip wore on, that the girl was a natural sailor. There were stiff winds before the ship reached the gulf stream. The sea became so rough that portholes had to be closed.

Sea legs were as natural as land ones to Arthur Knight. Now he found that, no matter how the sea might pitch and roar, Judith was good for five times around the sun deck each morning. She enjoyed lazy afternoons in her stateroom chair, well tucked up in blankets.

"They had their meals at the captain's table and Judith thought the slim, sharp-featured officer unusually interesting. He had so little to say but his words had such point. She was equally attracted by the ruddy, weather-stained bronze of his face.

Arthur Knight picked up acquaintances. He knew the ship's officers, found one or two men with whom he had had business relations, and he brought them all to Judith.

Knight fairly radiated pride when other men paid his pretty young bride compliments. The fact that Mrs. Knight was so constantly surrounded by masculine attention set tongues going in many a strictly feminine circle of busybodies.

There were several other honeymooners on board. There was one other couple just married who sat at the captain's table. Then there were two middle-aged sisters there who affected the brightest of sport clothes. There was a solitary elderly gentleman whom no one seemed to know much about. There was a Germanic young man who said he was enjoying his first vacation in seven years. There was the very attractive Mrs. Franklin Monroe West and her less obtrusive husband.

Mrs. West was a flamboyant brunette, probably 35, though looking nearly 10 years less. Her gowns were as perfect as Judith Knight's and she wore far more jewelry.

Mrs. West was vivacious, generally popular, and she urged her friendship upon Judith.

Judith and Knight were both delighted to discover, as the trip wore on, that the girl was a natural sailor. There were stiff winds before the ship reached the gulf stream. The sea became so rough that portholes had to be closed.

Sea legs were as natural as land ones to Arthur Knight. Now he found that, no matter how the sea might pitch and roar, Judith was good for five times around the sun deck each morning. She enjoyed lazy afternoons in her stateroom chair, well tucked up in blankets.

"They had their meals at the captain's table and Judith thought the slim, sharp-featured officer unusually interesting. He had so little to say but his words had such point. She was equally attracted by the ruddy, weather-stained bronze of his face.

Arthur Knight picked up acquaintances. He knew the ship's officers, found one or two men with whom he had had business relations, and he brought them all to Judith.

Knight fairly radiated pride when other men paid his pretty young bride compliments. The fact that Mrs. Knight was so constantly surrounded by masculine attention set tongues going in many a strictly feminine circle of busybodies.

There were several other honeymooners on board. There was one other couple just married who sat at the captain's table. Then there were two middle-aged sisters there who affected the brightest of sport clothes. There was a solitary elderly gentleman whom no one seemed to know much about. There was a Germanic young man who said he was enjoying his first vacation in seven years. There was the very attractive Mrs. Franklin Monroe West and her less obtrusive husband.

Mrs. West was a flamboyant brunette, probably 35, though looking nearly 10 years less. Her gowns were as perfect as Judith Knight's and she wore far more jewelry.

Mrs. West was vivacious, generally popular, and she urged her friendship upon Judith.

Judith and Knight were both delighted to discover, as the trip wore on, that the girl was a natural sailor. There were stiff winds before the ship reached the gulf stream. The sea became so rough that portholes had to be closed.

Sea legs were as natural as land ones to Arthur Knight. Now he found that, no matter how the sea might pitch and roar, Judith was good for five times around the sun deck each morning. She enjoyed lazy afternoons in her stateroom chair, well tucked up in blankets.

"They had their meals at the captain's table and Judith thought the slim, sharp-featured officer unusually interesting. He had so little to say but his words had such point. She was equally attracted by the ruddy, weather-stained bronze of his face.

Arthur Knight picked up acquaintances. He knew the ship's officers, found one or two men with whom he had had business relations, and he brought them all to Judith.

Knight fairly radiated pride when other men paid his pretty young bride compliments. The fact that Mrs. Knight was so constantly surrounded by masculine attention set tongues going in many a strictly feminine circle of busybodies.

There were several other honeymooners on board. There was one other couple just married who sat at the captain's table. Then there were two middle-aged sisters there who affected the brightest of sport clothes. There was a solitary elderly gentleman whom no one seemed to know much about. There was a Germanic young man who said he was enjoying his first vacation in seven years. There was the very attractive Mrs. Franklin Monroe West and her less obtrusive husband.

Mrs. West was a flamboyant brunette, probably 35, though looking nearly 10 years less. Her gowns were as perfect as Judith Knight's and she wore far more jewelry.

Mrs. West was vivacious, generally popular, and she urged her friendship upon Judith.

Judith and Knight were both delighted to discover, as the trip wore on, that the girl was a natural sailor. There were stiff winds before the ship reached the gulf stream. The sea became so rough that portholes had to be closed.

Sea legs were as natural as land ones to Arthur Knight. Now he found that, no matter how the sea might pitch and roar, Judith was good for five times around the sun deck each morning. She enjoyed lazy afternoons in her stateroom chair, well tucked up in blankets.

"They had their meals at the captain's table and Judith thought the slim, sharp-featured officer unusually interesting. He had so little to say but his words had such point. She was equally attracted by the ruddy, weather-stained bronze of his face.

Arthur Knight picked up acquaintances. He knew the ship's officers, found one or two men with whom he had had business relations, and he brought them all to Judith.

Knight fairly radiated pride when other men paid his pretty young bride compliments. The fact that Mrs. Knight was so constantly surrounded by masculine attention set tongues going in many a strictly feminine circle of busybodies.

There were several other honeymooners on board. There was one other couple just married who sat at the captain's table. Then there were two middle-aged sisters there who affected the brightest of sport clothes. There was a solitary elderly gentleman whom no one seemed to know much about. There was a Germanic young man who said he was enjoying his first vacation in seven years. There was the very attractive Mrs. Franklin Monroe West and her less obtrusive husband.

Mrs. West was a flamboyant brunette, probably 35, though looking nearly 10 years less. Her gowns were as perfect as Judith Knight's and she wore far more jewelry.

Mrs. West was vivacious, generally popular, and she urged her friendship upon Judith.

Judith and Knight were both delighted to discover, as the trip wore on, that the girl was a natural sailor. There were stiff winds before the ship reached the gulf stream. The sea became so rough that portholes had to be closed.

Sea legs were as natural as land ones to Arthur Knight. Now he found that, no matter how the sea might pitch and roar, Judith was good for five times around the sun deck each morning. She enjoyed lazy afternoons in her stateroom chair, well tucked up in blankets.

"They had their meals at the captain's table and Judith thought the slim, sharp-featured officer unusually interesting. He had so little to say but his words had such point. She was equally attracted by the ruddy, weather-stained bronze of his face.

Arthur Knight picked up acquaintances. He knew the ship's officers, found one or two men with whom he had had business relations, and he brought them all to Judith.

Knight fairly radiated

Expansion For Arkansas Mapped

Millions To Be Spent During Present Year In State.

LITTLE ROCK, Jan. 8.—(AP)—A program of expansion for 1930 in Arkansas calling for estimated expenditures of $35,585,000, exclusive of normal industrial and municipal expenditures of several hundred organizations, was announced Tuesday at a "little Hoover day" luncheon by representatives of major industries of the state.

These figures representing only the most important state and industrial groups, do not include prospective expenditures of organizations not represented, or normal maintenance or payroll figures.

State and federal governments lead with heaviest expenditure. Governor Parnell announced that $38,938,000 will be spent by the state on highways, bridges, schools, hospitals and other public and quasi public institutions and enterprises.

Wallace Townsend, national republican committeeman from Arkansas, said that $11,277,500 will be expended by the federal government variously on the army and navy hospital at Hot Springs, new federal building at Little Rock, establishment of air mail routes and waterway development in and through the state.

Business leaders, as well as representatives of state and federal administrations at the luncheon, announced the expansion program was being carried forward in accordance with the industrial expansion program recently advanced by President Hoover.

Sums approximating $5,000,000 each will be expended by the Arkansas Natural Gas corporation and the Mississippi Pacific railroad in construction and additional equipment, officials of the two companies announced.

S. M. Wilcox, Pine Bluff, general manager for the Arkansas Power and Light company, said the company was planning an expenditure of $3,000,000 in the state.

Announcements by the Cotton Belt railroad and the Rock Island lines stated that the two railroads would spend $7,665,465 and $10,886,000 respectively, most of the money going to new improvements.

Other sums to be spent during the current year include $2,000,000, (exclusive of new Little Rock office building) southwestern Bell Telephone $2,000,000, Missouri and North Arkansas railroad, 2,000,000. Southwestern Dairies, Inc., $1,500,000. Justus Matthews company, $500,000. Southwestern Gas and Electric company, $1,400,000. City of Little Rock, $1,000,000. Arkansas Democrat, $500,000. Sun Building and Development company and $75,000, the Arkansas railway.

It was estimated by various industrial representatives at the luncheon there were more than one hundred companies whose expenditures were not accounted for.

Scott Rushing, of Hot Springs, road machinery salesman, and former college football star, was a business visitor in Hope Wednesday.

What "We" Are Wearing This Winter

In the latest mid-winter air mode, the famous flying firm of "We" is pictured above just before taking off from New York for a survey flight over the trans-continental "Lindbergh Line." Both Lindy and Mrs. Lindy were attired in brand new extra-heavy flying suits and each wore goggles, woolen scarf around the neck and flying boots.

Nevada Officers Had Thriving Business In 1929, Records Show

PRESCOTT, Jan. 8.—That Sheriff E. H. Weaver and his deputies have been busy during the past year is proved by figures given out at the sheriff's office this week. The number of arrests made was the largest in the history of Nevada county, and over half of the total was for prohibition law violations. A total of $1,632.50 in fines was collected and paid into the county treasury.

The 161 arrests made during the year were divided as follows: gambling 15, larceny 25, disturbing the peace 34, false pretense 20, concealed weapons five, liquor violations 80. A plea of guilty or a conviction was obtained in each of the above cases which has come up for trial. A few arrested for liquor law violations will face trial in circuit court when it convenes here next week.

Still captured and destroyed by the sheriff's forces during the year numbered 22, while 67 gallons of whiskey and 5400 gallons of mash was destroyed. Nine men were sentenced to the penitentiary for illegal manufacture of whiskey during the year.

COMMISSIONER'S SALE

Notice is hereby given, That in pursuance of the authority and directions contained in the decretal order of the Chancery Court of Hempstead County, made and entered on the 21st day of December, A. D. 1929, in a certain cause (No. 2214) then pending therein, between Meredith Jones, complainant, and Ocie Corbin, defendant, the undersigned, as Commissioner of said Court, will offer for sale at public vendue, to the highest bidder, at the front door or entrance of the United States Post Office, in the City of Hope, Hempstead County, Arkansas, within the hours prescribed by law for judicial sales, on Saturday, the 1st day of February, A. D. 1930, the following described real estate situated in Hempstead County, Arkansas, to-wit:

The West Half (W 1-2) of Lot Three (3), Block Fifty-one (51), in the City of Hope, Arkansas.

TERMS OF SALE: On a credit of three months, the purchaser being required to execute a bond as required by law, and the order and decree of said Court in said cause, with approved security, bearing interest at the rate of ten (10) percent per annum from date of sale until paid, and a lien being retained on the premises sold, to secure the payment of the purchase money.

GIVEN under my hand this 23rd day of December, A. D. 1929.

WILLIE HARRIS Commissioner in Chancery.

Dec 24, Jan 3.

Good Meeting Held By B. & P. W. Club

Miss Nell Bennett Hostess to First Meet of Year.

The Hope Business and Professional Women's Club held its first meeting of the new year yesterday evening in the private dining room of the New Capital Hotel, with Miss Nell Bennett, hostess. The long dining table, were made attractive with sustained center pieces of delicate greenery which extended the full length, with tall lighted green tapers in rose holders at intervals. Place cards and favors were in keeping with the season, being timepieces and dainty kewpie dolls.

Before being seated, each member and guest made New Year resolutions for her neighbor, after which Miss Harrison invoked God's blessing. Miss Bennett introduced as her guests her sister, Miss Viva Bennett, Miss Peggy Campbell of the Fulton public schools, and little Miss Geneva Higginson, who later gave two most enjoyable readings, "But Don't You Tell," and "Too Young to Know."

Miss Harrison was asked to state the aims of the club for its work for 1930, and stressed the necessity of regular attendance at all meetings, cooperation in club and civic enterprises and urged further support of the Club to the Public Library. She said, "Just as a chain is no stronger than its weakest link, so may we expect to be no stronger than our weakest member. Let's each of us strive to be a strong member, active and alert and all will profit as a result." The most enthusiastic members of our organization are those who attend practically all of its meetings, participate in any activities being sponsored and who keep informed by way of our National Federation publication and through local publicity.

During the business session presided over by Miss Harrison, the health and finance committee made reports and announcement was made to the effect that we would be listed as a charter contributor to the National Federation home in Washington, D. C., an enterprise being sponsored by a former president, Miss Lena Madeson Phillips. Plans were also discussed for a party to be given in the near future and for the Conference of the Six Arkansas District to be held here about the middle of February.

Miss Harrison appointed the following committees to sponsor this meeting: Program, Miss Margaret Simms, Maude Lipscomb, Beryl Henry, Mamie Twitchell and Mrs. Frank Hicks. Hospitality and arrangements, Mrs. Frank Russell, Mrs. B. R. Hamm, Dr. Etta E. Champlin, Misses Mary Buechley and Hazel Arnold. Transportation, Misses Thelma Cobb, Anne Martindale, Forrest Ruggles, Elizabeth Doane, Mrs. Ruth Fleming, and Mrs. Charles Walker. Approximately one hundred visitors are expected to attend this conference, including and much pleasurable anticipation is being experienced.

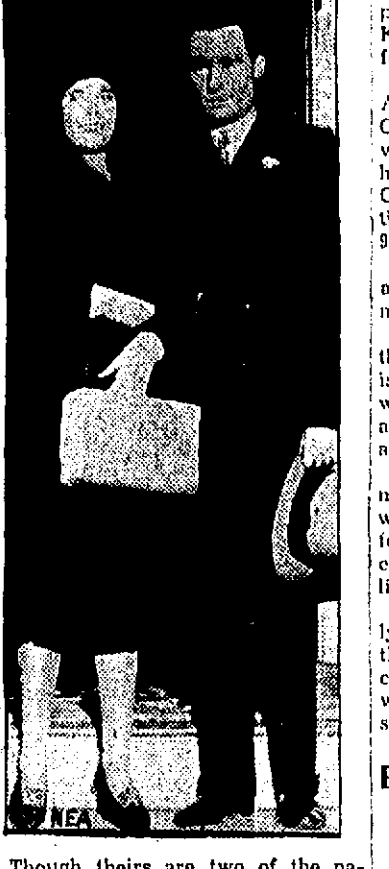

Miss Margaret Simms will be hostess for the meeting of January 21, which will be held at the Hotel Barlow.

GIVEN under my hand this 23rd day of December, A. D. 1929.

WILLIE HARRIS Commissioner in Chancery.

Dec 24, Jan 3.

Vanderbilt Wed Without Swank

Though theirs are two of the nation's best known and wealthiest families, the utmost simplicity marked the wedding of William H. Vanderbilt, multi-millionaire descendant of pioneer capitalists, and Anne Gordon Colby, daughter of Everett Colby, prominent politician. Bride and groom are pictured here after the ceremony, attended by only 30 guests, at West Orange, N. J.

To Hold Meeting of Episcopal Church

A special meeting of St. Marks Vestry will be held at the Barlow hotel on Wednesday evening Jan. 8, at 7:30 o'clock. James T. Bovill, rector of the church, will be in charge of the meeting.

Answer Child's Questions; Help Him To Grow Wise

CINCINNATI, Jan. 8.—In its first five years of life a baby learns more proportionately than any Phil Beta Kappa honor student learns in a full four years of college.

That statement by Dr. Ada Hart Arlitt, head of the department of Child Care and Training at the University of Cincinnati, will be used as her thesis when she talks on Children's Curiosity at the Crusley radio station, WLW, Friday, January 10, at 9:40 a. m.

"What do you do when your child asks questions?" Dr. Arlitt will demand of her listeners. "If you don't answer his questions, the baby won't know what the world is all about," she will say. "The only way he has of getting an idea of adult experiences, is by asking 'how' and 'what?' and particularly 'why?'"

When the small boy asks why the mar goes to the grocery store, and why he buys rice and so on in a perfect torrent of questions, he isn't just exercising his vocal chords, Dr. Arlitt says. He really wants knowledge.

"If the parents don't intelligently answer the child's questions in those vital five years of life, he is certain to be seriously handicapped when he goes to school," she insists.

Boys Beat Elders In Texas Farming

COLLEGE STATION, Tex., Jan. 8.—(AP)—Texas 4-H club boys are showing their elders a thing or two in the matter of raising corn and cotton at a profit.

Yields averaging more than 73 bushels of corn an acre have been achieved in 25 projects conducted by club boys, whereas the average corn production in Texas is around 20 bushels an acre.

The boys' average cost was slightly more than 34 cents a bushel with net profits averaging $18.76 an acre.

Club boys also have averaged nearly six times as much lint an acre as the average farmer in cotton experiments.

While the Texas cotton yield was falling to a new low level of 108 pounds of lint to the acre this year, 26 4-H boys averaged 61 pounds at an average cost of 6.6 cents a pound.

Their average net profit was $85.81 from gross returns averaging $126.50 an acre.

SPECIAL ASSESSMENT

The Tax books for collection of the special assessment upon real property in Street Improvement District No. Six of the City of Hope, Arkansas, for the purpose of paving those parts of all streets within the boundaries of said district, and the streets located therein, reference is herein made to the ordinance creating said district has been placed in my hands.

All owners of real property lying in said district are required to pay their assessments to me within thirty days from this date. If such payment is not made, action will be commenced at the end of that time for the collection of said assessments and for legal penalties and costs.

This tax may be paid without penalties, or not before February 15, 1930, and for the convenience of property owners, the undersigned collector, will said City from the 1st day of February until the 15th day of February 1930, both days inclusive, for the purpose of receiving and collecting said tax assessment.

Given under my hand this 4th day of January, 1930.

BELE D. AGEE, Collector.

This is not Water and Sewer District, but Street Improvement District, Jan. 4-11

WARNING ORDER

IN HEMPSTEAD CHANCERY COURT SARAH McEACHRAN, ASSIGNEE, PLAINTIFF, Vs. ROLAND, ELLIOTT, ET. AL., DEFENDANTS.

The defendant, The American Investment Company, a corporation, is warned to appear in the Hempstead County Circuit Court within thirty days and answer the complaint of the plaintiff, Sarah McEachran, A & S.

WITNESS my hand as clerk of said court, and the seal thereof, on this 18th day of December, 1929.

WILLIE HARRIS, Clerk of the Hempstead County Chancery Court.

18-21.

Report of Condition of the FIRST NATIONAL BANK of Hope, In the State of Arkansas, at the Close of Business, December 31, 1929.

RESOURCES
Loans and discounts	$299,534.71
United States Government securities owned	120,075.00
Other bonds, stocks, and securities owned	150,910.27
Banking house, furniture and fixtures, $14,876.83	63,876.83
Real estate owned other than banking house	2,104.50
Reserve with Federal Reserve Bank	13,084.30
Cash and due from banks	53,538.31
Redemption fund with U. S. Treasurer and due from U. S. Treasurer	2,250.00
Other assets	1,012.82
TOTAL	$725,386.75
LIABILITIES
Capital stock paid in	$100,000.00
Surplus	11,000.00
Undivided profits-net	57.34
Circulating notes outstanding	45,000.00
Due to banks, including certified and cashiers' checks outstanding	32,031.64
Demand deposits	370,476.74
Time Deposits	166,818.03
TOTAL	$725,386.75

State of Arkansas, County of Hempstead, ss:
I, Lloyd Spencer, Cashier of the above-named bank, do solemnly swear that the above statement is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.
LLOYD SPENCER, Cashier.
CORRECT ATTEST: E. P. Stewart, R. G. McRae, Talbot Field, Directors.
Subscribed and sworn to before me this 8th day of January, 1930.
CLARICE CANNON, Notary Public.
My Commission expires January 28, 1933.

RESOURCES		LIABILITIES
Banking House, Furniture and Fixtures	$483,822.72	Capital Stock	$150,000.00
Real Estate	83,876.83	Surplus	16,500.00
Stock in Federal Reserve Bank	7,560.30	Undivided Profits	706.72
Five Per Cent Fund	3,300.00	Circulation	45,000.00
U. S. Bonds to Secure Circulation	2,250.00	DEPOSITS	$525,861.62
Demand Cotton Acceptance: $24,449.32
U. S. Bonds	102,250.00
Other Bonds and Securities	209,525.27
Collections Due from Banks	1,012.83
Cash and Sight Exchange	125,073.47
TOTAL	$1,068,071.31	TOTAL	$1,068,071.31

OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS
R. G. McRAE, President
H. J. LEMLEY, Vice-President
LLOYD SPENCER, Cashier
SYD McMATH, Asst. Cashier
ROY STEPHENSON, Asst. Cashier
CHAS. C. McRAE
J. P. JOHNSON
N. P. O'NEAL
E. P. STEWART
TALBOT FIELD

College Money Goes For Candy

Washington University Girls Spend More for "Miscellaneous"

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 8.—Fathers send their sons to school to eat ice cream and buy candy, and mothers send their daughters to have their clothes cleaned, it appears from an analysis of the purchasing powers and buying habits of Washington University authorities.

Washington men pamper their sweet tooth to the extent of $9,172.25 per month according to the analysis. This is the largest single item of expenditure listed by the men.

Washington co-eds purchase a lot of "miscellaneous" according to the report, as this class led the list. The largest single tangible expenditure is $4,242.85 per month for clothes cleaning.

The fair ones spend $7,000 a month less than the men in the University City ice cream parlors and candy stores. The report fails to refute the argument of the men that of their $9,000 monthly expenditure for sundries and chocolates, the more dangerous of the species consume $8,000 worth.

The analysis reveals that 35 per cent of the women, drive cars to school daily.

Edmund Lowe Stars In "This Thing Called Love"

Edmund Lowe, whose success in "The Cock-Eyed World"—the picture which recently broke all existing box-office records at the RKO Theatre in New York and who has established him as one of the most popular male personalities of the talking screen, makes his stellar film appearance opposite Constance Bennett in Pathe's "This Thing Called Love."

In this all-talking version of Edwin Burke's smart comedy, which was prepared for the screen by Horace Jackson, Lowe has an opportunity to prove his versatility in a role of great subtlety and appeal, deftly blending high power drama and punchy comedy.

Paul Stein, who scored such a success with "Her Private Affair," directed "This Thing Called Love." It will be seen at the New Grand on Thursday next. Zasu Pitts, Roscoe Karns, Carmelita Geraghty, Ruth Taylor and other noted players are the supporting cast.

"Let's get up a Newspaper ad"

This is number nine of a series of ads telling the story of advertising production. Ad No. 8 dealt with the reading of our proof.

"our Ad is Printed--"

Our ad has had its final okeh, it is next placed in its proper position in the page form; locked up, and ready for the press where flat bed printing presses are used. In the case of cylinder presses, this locked up form must go to the stereotype room where a plate of the entire page is made in cylinder form.

In either case our ad has reached its final stages and the printing results we obtain in-so-far as our "Ros-canne Dress" illustration is concerned will depend largely on the quality of the mat we have employed.

Advertisers in this newspaper may absolutely rely on printing results obtained with the mats we supply through our Meyer Both General Newspaper Service.

Hope Star